JOHNSON GOES DRY TOO

VOTED ON LOCAL OPTION, WITH VICTORY IN FAVOR OF NO SALOONS.

BEAT THE WETS OVER TWO TO ONE

Result Banishes Liquor From Entire County, Including Four Towns Besides Warrensburg, Which Voted Dry Friday.

Warrensburg, Mo., Feb. 8.—Johnson county, following the example of Warrensburg, its county seat, which went dry Friday by 145 votes, today carried for local option by a majority of 1,151 votes, thus eradicating the liquor traffic from every portion of the county.

The total number of votes cast was 3,293, the wets having 1,071 and the drys 2,222, or over two to one.

The result affects every town in the county, including Holden, Leeton, Knobnoster and Chilhowee.

In each of the towns the anti-liquor element cast the majority of votes Holden having a majority of 170, Leeton 70, Knobnoster 94 and Chilhowee 167. Only two precincts in the entire county gave a majority for license, one going wet by ten and the other by one vote.

There is great rejoicing tonight among the temperance people over the overwhelming victory, and the word has gone out that the law is to be strictly enforced, and that all violators may expect nothing but the severest penalty.

BANDITS BOARD TRAIN

The Conductor and Flagman of a Chicago & Alton Train Robbed.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Two bandits held up the fast merchandise freight train the Chicago & Alton railroad as it was passing through Corwith, a suburb of Chicago, early today, and escaped after robbing the crew. The bandits, who were described as young, wore red bandana handkerchiefs over the lower parts of their faces.

They swung on the caboose of the train at a point where the Alton tracks cross Central Park avenue, a short distance from the railroad yards in Brighton park. As they invaded the car they displayed revolvers and ordered the men inside to throw up their hands. The conductor, James Shannon, of Bloomington, and Howard Kenyon, of the same town, a flagman, obeyed. They were compelled to stand with their faces toward the car wall as one of the bandits searched their clothing while his companion, with a revolver in each hand, stood guard. From Shannon the bandits secured $15 and a gold watch and chain. They took $7 from Kenyon an also his watch and chain.

START AFTER "BAD" NEGRO

Officers to Bring Alleged Murderer Back From Tacoma.

St. Joseph, Mo., Feb. 8.—Inspector of Detectives C. H. Kelley and Secretary R. S. Graves, of the police commission, will leave today for Tacoma, Wash., to bring back Hayden Peoples, the negro under arrest there charged with the murder of John Seyfried, an aged saloonkeeper.

A requisition has been asked from Governor Folk. Peoples is believed to be a dangerous man and two officers were sent for him to prevent any possibility of escape. He is said to have made statements to the Tacoma officers tending to prove his identity.

Died at Katy Hospital.

John Mack, a Katy extra gang laborer from Clinton, died from pneumonia at the M., K. & T. hospital at 8:45 o'clock Saturday night. He was born in New York and was a member of the Roman Catholic church. He was 58 years of age. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Circuit Court Doings.

In the Pettis county circuit court Saturday in the damage suit of Mary Williams, colored, vs. Frank Bledsoe, colored, the attachment was sustained by a vote of nine jurors for and three against.

In the same court a decree of divorce was granted to John Farris from Bertha Farris.

Will Organize in Sedalia.

Prof. Aherns, in charge of the manual training and domestic science deparentment of the Warrensburg normal school, was here Saturday and arranged for a state meeting of teachers engaged in this line of work, to be held in Sedalia on Friday and Saturday, February 28 and 29, to perfect a state organization. A banquet will be given the night of the 28th in honor of the visitors.

Mrs. Johnson Is Doing Well.

L. E. Johnson, the barber, returned Friday night from Kansas City, where for the last few days he has been at the bedside of his wife, who was operated upon there one day last week for a tumor. Mrs. Johnson is improving very nicely.

DEAD FEUDIST IS BURIED

JUDGE HARGIS, NOTED KENTUCKIAN, HAD A UNIQUE FUNERAL.

LAY IN $1500 MAHOGANY CASKET

Before the Service Son Who Killed Him Knelt With Mother Beside the Coffin—Hearse a Push Car.

Jackson, Ky., Feb. 8.—The funeral of Judge James Hargis, who met death at the hands of his son, took place at noon today in the little family burial ground on the crown of a knoll around which flows the north fork of the Kentucky river. The dead man lay in a casket of steel and mahogany, and its silver handles glistened in the sunlight as it rested beside the upturned clay while the last words for the dead were said. Near by are the graves of Judge Hargis' three brothers, all of whom died of bullet wounds inflicted by implacable enemies.

The funeral procession of the murdered leader was a unique spectacle. The body was taken across the "town bend" of the river by a bridge and there placed upon a push car and rolled down the tracks of the Lexington and Eastern railroad half a mile. Thence it was transferred to a push car of the narraw gauge road of a lumber company and rolled nearly a mile more, crossing the river again on the Panhandle side, thence is was carried about 300 yards to the grave.

The attendants walked, forming a procession on the track behind the car which served as a hearse. Could one be used there is no hearse in the town, neither is there an undertaker in the region.

Beech Hargis, the slayer, was permitted to view the body of his father before it was taken from the house. He was greatly overcome and fell on his knees and said: "Lord have mercy."

His mother knelt beside him.

He was returned to the gloomy Breathitt county jail just about the hour that the body of his father was being taken from the house and did not see the procession as it started on its way.

EX-U. S. ATTORNEY GUILTY

A Portland Jury Convicts John H. Hall of Conspiracy.

Portland, Ore., Feb. 8.—John H. Hall, ex-United States district attorney, indicted for conspiracy with the Butte Creek Land, Live Stock and Lumber company to maintaain an illegal fence which inclosed 20,000 acres of public land in Wheeler county, was found guilty today. The trial has been in progress since January 13 and has been bitterly fought on both sides.

Three hours and ten minutes after receiving the instructions of Judge Hunt last night the jury arrived at a decision, and at 10:30 o'clock this morning a sealed verdict was returned.

Mr. Blain's Uncle Ill.

W. W. Blain received word Saturday that his uncle, Jesse Blain, of Sweet Springs, is quite ill with stomach trouble and pneumonia at Excelsior Springs.

Wilson's Wounds Fatal.

St. Louis, Feb. 8.—John Wilson, who was shot by his brother-in-law, Frank Engleman, of Kansas City, died this morning.

ROYAL FUNERAL IS HELD

SERVICES OVER THE MURDERED KING AND PRINCE WERE VERY SIMPLE.

PROCESSION STRONGLY GUARDED

People From City and Country Joined in the Ceremony and Much Grief Was Shown by Subjects of the Dead Monarch.

Lisbon, Feb. 8.—The funeral services over the bodies of King Carlos and his son, Luiz, crown Prince of Portugal, who were shot to death a week ago today in this city, was held in the church of San Vincente early this afternoon. The ceremonies were simple, but impressive, and the final act in the bloody tragedy of February 1 was carried to a close without any untoward incident. The line of the funeral procession from the royal chapel in the palace to the church was guarded by troops, several additional regiments having been brought into the city for the purpose.

All the governments of Europe and America were represented by special missions.

The day was one in which the Portuguese united in prayer for their dead king. This was the day of the burial of their royal dead; and also the burial of fellow Roman Catholics —and following the custom of Roman Catholics the people wished to join in some way in the solemn mass which was offered for the spiritual welfare of Carlos and his son.

The streets were thronged with people. They poured in from the country, from the towns of the provinces and from nearby cities, some by train, some by carriage or by cart and many on foot. In the crowd were large numbers of simple peasants and tradesmen from the provinces who knew or cared nothing of political strife, but wished only to mourn the dead leaders.

Bits of crepe fluttered from the arms of many persons in the city, yet in spite of these general signs of mourning the crowded streets suggested to some observers a general fete day, which the talking throngs were all bent on observing; but to others the presence of large bodies of infantrymen and cavalrymen at various points of prominence, had a sinister significance, a suggestion of the tragic events that had come and of those that might fall on the nation in the near future, but which, if possible, were to be forestalled.

The route of march between the palace and the church was densely lined by the mourning people. One point, however, was carefully avoided by the superstitious Portuguese; this was the spot on the Prada Do Commercia where the cold blooded murders were committed last Saturday. Had it not been for the presence of a cavalry picket this part of the Prada would have been absolutely deserted. All the business houses and shops of Lisbon were closed.

HAD LEFT HIS HOME

Fourteen-Year-Old Boy From Cole Camp Found Here Last Night.

A long distance telephone call was received at police headquarters last night from Albert F. Kull, a former Sedalia photographer, now engaged in business at Cole Camp, requesting the authorities to locate his 14-year-old son, William Baley, who ran away from home.

The officers traced the lad to the home of Mr. Robertson, Twentieth street and Washington avenue, where he was spending the night, with the intention of going to St. Louis today.

The boy promised to remain until his father arrived today, in preference to spending the night in jail.

Message for Miss Fannie Edwards.

There is an undelivered message at the Western Union Telegraph company's office for Miss Fannie Edwards, sent from Rexburg, Ia., stating "Charles was shot by a tramp."

Entertained Their Young Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Clingenpeel, of West Cooper street, entertained about thirty young friends at their home Friday night. There were dancing, music and refreshments, and all had a pleasant time.

Want Better Milk Ordinance.

It is said that Sedalia will have a broader ordinance regulating the sale of milk in the near future. What is desired is a measure that will give the inspector, Dr. T. E. White, power to stop a dairyman's wagon on the street, obtain a sample of the product he is selling, and if an analysis shows that it has been "doctored," then provide suitable punishment for the misdemeanor.

Sedalian Down in Florida.

Mrs. W. J. Maltby is in receipt of an interesting letter form her son, Harold, who is on a large fruit ranch at Sorento, Florida. He writes that he is feeling fine, enjoys his surroundings and is perfectly contented in every respect.

BLAMES LID FOR LUNACY

SUNDAY CLOSING LAW DROVE BREWER TRAUNMILLER INSANE.

HIS WIFE HAD SECURED A DIVORCE

Joseph E. Lademan, Brother of the Divorced Woman, Appointed Guardian by the Probate Court in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 8.—Joseph Traunmiller, former manager of the Excelsior Brewing Co., was declared insane by a probate jury yesterday, and Joseh E. Landman, his divorced wife's brother, was appointed guardian. Mrs. Traunmiller is at her home in Milwaukee.

Traunmiller was taken to St. Vincent's asylum here eighteen months ago, when his wife stated that the Sunday closing law was the cause. His friends allege domestic troubles caused him to weep constantly.

His wife then took a long trip through the southwest. Returning, she obtained a divorce at Rolla, Mo., on the ground that Traunmiller was mentally unsound.

Mrs. Adele Schreiner, Traunmiller's daughter, testified he was taken from St. Vincent's asylum here to the Milwaukee insane asylum last April, and thence to the state insane asylum at Fulton, Mo., where he has been extremely meancholy.

RACE FAKER GOES FREE

Colorado Will Not Give Up One of the Webb City Conspirators.

Denver, Feb. 8.—Governor Buchtel denied today the request of Governor Cummins, of Iowa, for a requisition for Leon Lozier, who is wanted in Council Bluffs for the alleged swindling on a fake foot race of citizens at that place. The race was held at Webb City, Mo.

Lozier agreed with Council Bluffs men to go to Webb City and lose, instead of which he won, and his partners lost thousands of dollars betting against him, while he with new conspirators won as much. Lozier, with two others, was convicted and sentenced, but when the Iowa supreme court had affirmed the conviction the fakers had disappeared.

Attorney General Dickson heard the application yesterday, and held that as the whole scheme was a gamble Lozier could not be held, a gambling game being illegal and void; or, in other words, the Colorado attorney general decided that the Iowa supreme court was wrong, and that while Lozier was guilty of defrauding his first co-conspirators and morally committing a crime, legally he could not be held because the whole proposition was illegal, and the prosecutors got what they deserved. Governor Buchtel followed out this ruling and declined to issue the papers.

Kills Father and Himself.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Wilhelm Williams 22 years old, last night shot and killed his father, John Williams, 53 years old at the family home 4632 Ashland avenue. The son then fired a bullet into his own head. It is thought the wound will prove fatal. The double tragedy followed a family quarrel.

Editors Are Still Ill.

Misses Rosa Pearle and Alice Dugan, both of whom are ill with la grippe, were not so well Saturday, and owing to their illness during the past week, there was no publication of Rosa Pearle's Paper last evening.

A TEACHER WILL TESTIFY

THAT INDECENT PROPOSALS WERE MADE HER BY OHIO EDUCATOR.

WAS MEMBER OF EXAMINING BOARD

Legislative Committee Has Been Appointed to Investigate the Case and a Big Sensation Is Promised.

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 8.—The joint legislative committee to investigate the alleged irregularities in the state educational system, as made in the charges on the senate floor a few days ago by Senator W. H. Meek, of Dayton, decided to hold its hearings in the assembly room of the board of trade, the use of which was tendered by that body.

Senator Meek has outlined his charges as requested by the committee, and will furnish a list of witnesses in an effort to prove them. He says he will use no names further than specifically to mention the state board of examiners for teachers' certificates and the state school commissioner.

He will charge, as before, that the former has granted certificates in return for lecturing dates at teachers' institutes for its members.

As to the state school commissioner he will claim that all of this has been done with his knowledge.

So far as the bossism is concerned, he still sticks to it, and, with the list of names furnished the committee to testify, he expects to prove it.

He will also have the woman teacher here who furnished an affidavit in which she charged that indecent proposals were made to her by one of the examiners.

NOT FORT SCOTT MURDERER

Maimed Negro at City Hospital Is Not Party Wanted in Kansas.

P. C. Hesser, sheriff of Fort Scott, Bourbon county, Kas., arrived here on Katy train No. 2 Saturday morning to identify Thomas Saxton, a negro at the city hospital with both feet amputated, who was thought to be guilty of murdering a man named Harris at Fort Scott several months ago.

Sheriff Hesser was accompanied by an aged negro, who is acquainted with Harris' murderer, but at one sight of the patient the negro said he was not the man. The sheriff and his companion returned home on No. 3.

STARTS FOR KANSAS CITY

Train Bearing Secretary Taft Left Washington Saturday.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Secretary Taft left Washington at 1:55 o'clock this afternoon over the Pennsylvania road for Kansas City. He will speak there Monday.

Before leaving the secretary said the recommendation of the joint board of army and navy officers in favor of the creation of the principal base of the United States at Manila, instead of at Subig bay, had been approved and would be carried into effect at once.

HERE WILL COME A TEST

One Candidate for Stone and the Other for Folk.

Lexington, Mo., Feb. 8.—Judge William Young, of this city, today announced his candidacy for representative from Lafayette county.

He has pledged his support to Senator Stone. Frank Bowman, also of Lexington, an appointee of the present administration, whose candidacy is announced, will support Folk for senator.

The third candidate is J. H. Christy, of Odessa, the incumbent.

Surprised by Lodge Members.

Members of the Loyal Rebekah lodge surprised Mrs. Helen Lister at her home on East Fifth street last week and presented her with a beautiful piece of china.

Mrs. Pritchett Is Ill.

Mrs. C. E. Messerly is at Springfield, Ill., being called there by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Pritchett. She will return next Wednesday.

Mr. Andler Not a Candidate.

Alderman Edward R. Andler, of the First ward, will not be a candidate for the republican nomination for mayor this spring. He said to the Democrat-Sentinel that a hundred people, he guessed, had asked him if he intended being a candidate, and he had invariably told them that he had never gone out into the highways and byways after political honors, nor did he ever expect to. Should a united party, however, tender Mr. Andler the nomination, it is not probable that he would decline it.

Kentucky Adopts Electric Chair.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 8.—The senate has passed the bill providing that prisoners condemned to death shall be electrocuted instead of hanged.

MR. MORSE WILL RETURN

NEW YORK FINANCIER NOW IN LIVERPOOL CHANGES HIS PLANS.

RECEIVED CABLE FROM ATTORNEY

He Immediately Announced That He Would Re-embark for America at Once to Straighten Out His Tangled Affairs.

Liverpool, Feb. 8.—C. W. Morse, of New York, will leave here this afternoon on the steamer Etruria for New York. This complete change in Mr. Morse's plans was caused by the receipt of a cablegram from New York. Mr. Morse arrived here this morning on the Campania. The message changing his plans was received at Queenstown, or by wireless between Queenstown and Liverpool, and when he landed here this afternoon he informed a correspondent of the Associated press that he was going to return this afternoon, instead of proceeding to the continent.

Mr. Morse lingered in his cabin on board the Campania and was the last of the saloon passengers to step ashore. His face bore distinct traces of worry when he finally appeared at the gangway, down which he hurried It was evident that he wished to escape interviewers and he hastened in the direction of the baggage room.

Interrogated regarding his future movements, Mr. Morse showed a decided disinclination to talk of his affairs or plans. He did say, however, that he had recieved a cablegram from New York which had decided him to return home immeditealy on board the Etruria. It had been his intention to proceed to the continent to look after certain business matters which demanded his attention, but the urgency of the cable had caused a reversal of his plans.

Mr. Morse declined to discuss in any way the status of his financial affairs or his prospects of getting out of his reported difficulties.

MAKE MISSISSIPPI "DRY"

The Lower House of the State Passed a Prohibition Bill.

Jackson, Miss., Feb. 8.—The lower house yesterday passed the statutory prohibition bill, providing for all saloon in Mississippi to pass out of existence December 31, 1908.

The bill will be taken up and probably passed by the senate.

Directory Contains 12,181 Names.

The Sedalia directory for 1908, issued by the Missouri Directory Co., was issued Saturday from the press of the Sedalia Printing Co., and will be distributed to subscribers early this week at $3.50 per copy. The new book contains 12,181 names has nearly 350 pages and no business house can afford to be without it.

Patient Is Steadily Improving.

Mrs. William Ferguson, wife of the Tipton lumberman, who was operated upon at Maywood hospital Friday by Dr. W. J. Ferguson, assisted by Drs. Cowan and Trader, is getting along nicely.

Birth of a Son.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Montgomery have a pretty baby son, born at their home on West Sixth street at 6 o'clock Friday evening. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

ENDORSED C. C. KELLY

REPUBLICANS OF PETTIS COUNTY DID IN MASS MEETING SATURDAY.

ELECTED HEIR DELEGATES ALSO

Adopted Resolutions Favoring J. H. Bothwell and H. W. Meuschke as Delegates to the National Convention.

There was a mass meeting of republicans of Pettis county at the court house here Saturday afternoon. The purpose of the meeting was to elect delegates and alternates to the state republican convention, to be held at St. Louis on February 28. and delegates and alternates to the congressional convention at Sedalia on February 18.

J. L. Babcock, chairman of the county committee, called the meeting to order and read the official call, after which W. M. Johns was elected temporary chairman and J. J. Cundiff temporary secretary. On motion the officers were made permanent.

D. H. Smith moved that the chairman name a committee of five to suggest names of delegates to the state and congressional conventions. Amendments to add the name of H. G. Phillips to the committee, also for the appointment of a committee on resolutions were accepted and the committee was enlarged to seven.

The chair named the following to suggest names of delegates: P. H. Sangree, George Anamosa, C. C. Kelly, H. W. Meuschke, H. G. Phillips, D. H. Norris and August Selken.

Committee on resolutions—Judge Louis Hoffman, J.L. Babcock, Charles Wadleigh, J. M. O'Bannon and James McCampbell.

While the committees were at work early talks were made by Holmes Hall, W. W. Blain, H. D. Dow, W. A. Collins and Capt. W. A. Fast.

The committee on resolutions reported as follows:

The republicans of Pettis county, in mass convention assembled, hereby renew their expressions of faith in the principles of the grand old party that has given to the nation the unprecedented prosperity of the past eleven years, the party that has never failed in times of distress to relieve the wants of the people. It has met all the emergencies of the past, and we have full and abiding faith in its ability to meet the demands of the future. We unanimously approve and endorse the administration of our able, energetic and patriotic president, Theodore Roosevelt.

We endorse the efficient and faithful service of our senator, William Warner; the business like and faithful administration of the republican state officers.

We also endorse and hereby heartily recommend our fellow citizen, John H. Bothwell for a delegate at large to the republican national convention.

We hereby present for the consideration of the Seventh congressional district our fellow citizen, C. C. Kelly, for the important office of congressman. We ask for him the support of the other counties of the district. He is an eloquent and forcible speaker, he is honest, able and popular, and we believe if nominated will be elected and will bring to the support of such measures as the needs of the district may suggest the strength that would attend a representative in harmony with the majority in congress.

We also recommend H. W. Meuschke to the congressional convention as a district delegate to the republican national convention.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Judge Hoffman spoke briefly and H. G. Phillips asked for the substitution of the name of a third negro in the delegation to the state committee.

The committee on delegates made the following report:

We, your committee to suggest names for delegates and alternates to the state and congressional conventions to be held respectively in St. Louis, February 28, and in Sedalia, February 18, have selected the names returned herewith and further suggest that in the event of failure of any delegate to attend the convention to which he is appointed, alternates be chosen in the order they appear

ADOPTING WISE COURSE.

Reports from Portugal contine to be reassuring. Dispatches from that coutry appear to confirm the first reports to the effect that the government was amply able to control the situation and preserve itself from overthrow.

There has been no attempt by whatever element may have been back of the dual assassination or in its sympathy with advanced republican ideas to take advantage of the nation's confusion and bring about a coup d'etat. On the contrary, if external signs count for anything, the radicals have been more nonplussed by the tragedy than royalty itself. If there were plans laid for the inauguration of a revolution the time for the movement has passed. It logically and necessarily must have been set in motion immediately following the capital crime to have had the slightest hope of success, and the entire failure of the conspirators to foment an uprising lends color to the opinion now advanced by many that the outrage was the stroke of an isolated cabal, in which the people, or any considerable portion, had no knowledge, complicity or sympathy.

The comparative ease with which the government recovered from the staggering blow and the complete control it instantly exercised over public affairs, shows that it not only possesses inherent strength, but that it enjoys loyal public support. It would not seem that Portugal is in position for, or even desirous of, a radical change in the form of government.

The new ministry which is now actively installed in office, has taken hold of things with a firm hand, and in a manner calculated to enlist public confidence. It not only has found time to look to the temporary security of the nation against its enemies, but it has already addressed itself to the working out of an administrative policy which will restore order and permanent peace.

It has decided, according to press dispatches, to order elections at the earliest possible moment for the convocation of a new parliament. No better step for the strengthening of the government with the people and for the confounding of the militant opposition could be devised than this. It will inspire patriotism and loyalty throughout the country because it is the best evidence and guarantee of the ministry's intention to re-install representative government and give the people the voice in public affairs they have ben demanding, but which was, with disastrous consequences, withheld from them.

THE TARIFF COMMISSION.

The president of the National Manufacturers' association has been in Washington urging the passage of Beveridge bill for the appointment of a "non-partisan tariff commission."

This sounds well enough, but there is no likilhood of such an ideal commission ever being appointed. Senator Beveridge and the president of the Manufacturers' association and everyone else interested in the subject know that such a commission, if appointed, will have the balance of power inclining toward the party appointing it. There is some hope for the passage of the bill at the present session, but this is only because it will be a good stalking horse for further tariff delay. Every time the republican party has been elected to power it has had a pledge for tariff revision in its platform, and when once well elected it has put off the evil day of revision till just before the next election and then explained that it was impossible to revise the tariff on the eve of an election.

The Manufacturers' association is frankly protectionist. It says that it believes in the revision of the tariff, which in its case means the tariff on raw materials, but on all manufactured products it wants to leave a good safe margin on the side of the manufacturer as against foreign manufactured products.

The association claims to represent 2,000,000 employers and leaves entirely out of the consideration the 78,000,000 consumers. However, the commission will probably be appointed, and it not only will draw good salaries while it is deliberating, but will be sure to delfberate for two or three years before it makes an entirely non-committal recommendation. The tariff game is a great game and the non-partisan commission is only one of its many manifestations.

Tom Lawson wants to bet any part of $100,000 on Roosevelt for a third term. John W. Gates says that he would take him up, except that he hates a piker.

The question of what to do with our ex-presidents will never have to bother Mr. Roosevelt so long as he has Jacob Riis to go around locating jobs for him.

It is generally understood that Mr. Bryan would like to put the Tammany Tiger through a course of vegetarianism before the Denver convention.

The patent office has just granted a patent on making paper uot of sawdust. This is sure to have a serious effect on the breakfast food industry.

The chief trouble about the simple life seems to be that the average man does not earn enough to live it.

After the Portuguese outbreak, the seekers for the next sensation are playing Russia against the field.

Remarkable, isn't it, how the president and Governor Hughes agree with each other?

And now they have turned him out and changed them into the re-Morseless banks.

Strange that Mrs. Glyn's book does not sell so well in the expurgated edition.

According to the revision board, to spell well you must "spel" "wel."

GOTCH THREW BEELL TWICE

The Iowan Had to Work Because the Toe Hold Was Barred.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Frank Gotch defeated Fred Beell in a two-bout wrestling match here last night. The toe hold was barred.

The men, under these conditions, were pretty evenly matched. Gotch won the falls with bar locks in 54:03 and 18:55.

IS JOKE MARRIAGE REAL?

New Jersey Folk Now Think Sunshine Joke Is on Them.

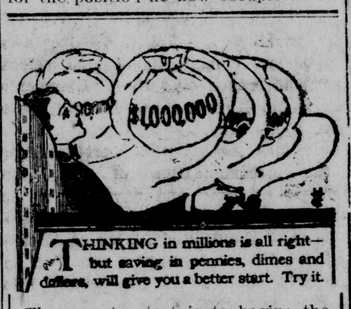

Paulsboro, N. J., Feb. 8.—At the meeting of the Sunshine Literary society, Rufus Williamson, a nephew of the mayor, was married to Miss Gladys McMickel, of Mauch Chunk, Pa., by Frank M. Bailey, a notary public, as was supposed at first in a spirit of fun, but as they had the necessary witnesses and the marriage was lawful, those present do not know but the joke is on them.

It is believed the bride and groom were in earnest, although the bride continues to teach school at this place.

WRONG MAN IN CHARGE

PRESIDENT CAN'T DESIGNATE THE HEAD OF THE PRINTING OFFICE.

H. T. BRIAN SUCCEEDS TO VACANCY

Rossiter Will Continue Investigation of Alleged "Irregularities," as the Personal Representative of Roosevelt.

Washington, Feb. 8.—William S. Rossiter, who on Wednesday was appointed by President Roosevelt as acting public printer in place of Public Printer Stillings, who is under suspension, pending an investigation of the affairs of his office were to the treasury department Friday to have his bond approved.

The department refused to consider the matter, on the ground that the president had exceeded his authority in appointing Mr. Rossiter, as under the law the assistant public printer, Capt. H. T. Brian, succeeds to the vacancy.

Under this informal ruling Mr. Rossiter later in the day stepped aside, and his place was taken by Capt. Brian, who will administer the government printing office as acting public printer for the time being.

Mr. Rossiter, however, does not relinquish the work of inquiry laid out for him by the president. His position in the government printing office becomes that of the president's personal representative, and he is proceeding with the investigation.

The authority under which the treasury department decided not to accept Mr. Rossiter's bond was the act of January 12, 1895, which provided that in case of death, resignation, absence or illness of the public printer the chief clerk of the government printing office should perform the duties of public printer until a successor was appointed or such absence or illness shall cease.

It also provides that the president may in his discretion authorize and direct any other officer of the government whose appointment is vested in the president, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, to temporarily perform duties of the vacant office. It is also provided that such vacancy by death or resignation must be filled within ten days.

By the legislative act of 1907 the title of the chief clerk of the government printing office was changed to that of deputy to the public printer. Under the ruling of the treasury officials Mr. Rossiter can have no other standing than that of personal representative of the president, without specific authority in any matters pertaining to the management of the office.

SAUSAGE IN HER STOCKING

A Young Woman's Arrest Who Worked in a Packing House.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 8.—A young Bohemian woman who works in the sausage department of the Swift packing plant was suspected of taking sausage from the plant and was stopped as she started home from work yesterday by a police officer of the company. She was taken to the matron's room and searched.

The young woman had between six and seven pounds of sausage in her stockings. After a lecture she was allowed to go.

A Masquerade Social.

The social committee of Fidelity council No. 53, Knights and Ladies of Security, have arranged for a masquerade social and dance to be given St. Valentine's night in the hall in the Royal Tribe of Joseph building.

The committee is composed of gentlemen who will prepare the program and all of the refreshments and in every way try to outdo the ladies who have given so many delightful social affairs during the last few months.

TREASURE FOUND IN A DEPOT

Store of Jewelry and Peck of Coins Under Station Floor.

Atlantic City, Feb. 8.—Rings, pins, brooches and many other articles of jewelry, as well as coins enough to fill a peck measure, were found yesterday when workmen took up a floor of the Reading railroad station that had been undisturbed for twenty years.

The jewelry will be held to permit owners to establish claims.

TWO GREAT THINGS IN LIFE.

Doing Real Work Well, and Love, Says This Writer.

On this gloomy day, beginning with a troublous morning a spirit of content grows upon me. Perhaps it is because I rescued those half-burned notes, but somehow it comes to me with renewed force that two of the great things in life are real work—that is worth the doing—and love. To this add optimism, a reasonable and eager hope and you have certainly the ingredients for happiness. There is a spirit of worship in work, recognized by the monks long ago in their proverb, "Work is prayer." The same spirit exists in true love, that impels us to high ideals, and calls out the best, the truest, the noblest sentiments we possess. "We needs must love the highest when we see it." Real joy and happiness often exist in the weariness of toil, and in striving to live up to an ideal and be worthy of love. There is no great mystery in this, for real troubles have their part in life, yet after all, a great many of them are mere phantoms, that vanish as the sunlight dispels the gloom.—Joe Mitchell Chapple in National Magazine.

RAILROAD MEN IN JUNKET

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Scores of members of the National Association of Railroad Agents left this afternoon on a special train for Los Angeles, where the twelfth annual convention will be held during the five days beginning next Saturday.

Stops for sight-seeing will be made at Santa Fe, Albuquerque, Laguna, the Grand Canyon of Arizona, Redlands, Riverside, San Bernardino, Pomona and other cities in the orange country of Southern California. Many additional pleasure trips will be taken to points in the vicinity of Los Angeles.

The special train will return from Los Angeles by way of N Orleans and Memphis, where the tourists will be elaborately entertained by the local railway officials.

The National Association of Railway Agents has on its membership rolls about 800 of the leading railway men of the country. It has held conventions in most of the important cities of the United States and the members have traveled some 15,000 miles on special trains during the last few years.

HIS TONGUE NOT KNOWN

UNABLE TO LEARN LANGUAGE OF AN IMMIGRANT AT ELLIS ISLAND.

INTERPRETERS ARE UP A STUMP

When Questioned the Stranger Simply Shakes His Head and Articulates Something That Is Unintelligible.

New York, Feb. 8.—Interpreters at Ellis Island, the government immigration station, will try to find a language to fit an immigrant of mysterious origin who arrived yesterday on the Royal Mail line steamer Atrato. The agent of the company who put the man aboard the Atrato at Savanillo, said that his name was G. Ferris, which had something of an Anglo-Saxon sound, but when the captaine and purser talked to the stranger in English he did not respond.

All the languages of Europe known to crew and passengers were tried on the dark man vainly; an officer experimented with Hindustanee and a passenger talked to Ferris in Arabic. To all he simply shook his head and articulated something unintelligible.

The linguistic experts on Ellis Island have yet to try their skill.

THEFT FIRST OFFENSE

Pretty Kentucky Widow Says She Was Forced by Want.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 8.—A comely young woman of refined appearance and stylishly dressed, who says she is Mrs. Louisa Cassell, formerly of Louisville, Ky., was arrested yesterday on the charge of shoplifting.

"I admit taking the things," she said. "This is the first time in my life that I was ever in such trouble and the first time that I ever took anything that did not belong to me. I was driven to it by necessity, as I couldn't get employment and I was out of funds.

"I am a widow and my husband was a foreigner. I do not want to give the names of my mother and father. Theirs were honored names in Kentucky. Today I sent a telegram to Mr. H. M. Flexner, in Louisville, and asked him if he would not testify that my past reputation was good."

ARRESTED AT ALTAR BRINK

Girl Charges a Chicago Tailor With Grand Larceny.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—In the midst of the preparations for his wedding, which was to have been celebrated at the home of his intended bride, Miss Yetta Wegmann, Joseph Weinberg, a tailor, was arrested on a warrant charging him with grand larceny.

The ceremony had to be postponed. The arrest of Weinberg was caused by Miss Fannie Lewis, who charges that Weinberg promised to marry her and took some jewelry and money belonging to her.

TAFT SIDESTEPS A ROW

Will Try to Keep Out of the St. Louis Muddle of Managers.

Washington, Feb. 8.— Secretary Taft will try and sidestep the republican row in St. Louis. Some days ago he accepted an invitation of the Hedringhaus crowd to dine with them Sunday night, the 9th, en route to Kansas City.

Later he discovered that his real managers in St. Louis, Howe and Akins, had been ignored and not even invited. Taft was in a great stew. Roosevelt came to his rescue by giving Ethan Allen Hitchcock a hint to invite Taft out to his home to dine with him. Ethan did so.

Then Taft wired the Niedringhaus crowd that he had discovered he had a previous engagement with Hitchcock and would decline their invitation. He has notified Akins and Howe to arrange a quiet little reception at one of the hotels which he will attend before he goes out to the Hitchcock dinner.

WOOD' OPERA HOUSE.

"A Missouri Boy," a musical comedy, enlivened with nine musical numbers, also a complete equipment of special scenery and effects, comes to Wood's opera house tonight.

For the benefit of that class of occasional showgoers designated as the "Doubting Thomases," we are authorized by the management to state that this is a guaranteed attraction. In other words, if you are dissatified with the performance at the conclusion of the first act you can secure your money back by applying at the box office. This is certainly a fair proposition, and should fill every seat in the opera house.

The Great Baker, who appears all next week at Wood's opera house, with the popular, mysterious exhibition, have established a reputation for their attraction that is second to none in this country. Prof. Baker has made a life long study of the occult science and suggestion, and most of his tests are entirely original with him and show a master mind. Last week the Great Baker played three nights at Martinsville, Ind., to the largest attendance ever known at that theater. Extra chairs were placed in the aisles at every performance. On Saturday night it was estimated that over 100 people were turned away. This speaks volumes for the merits of their exhibition. On Monday at 2:30 o'clock Prof. Baker will produce his famous blindfold carriage drive, mind-reading test on the streets. The greatest mind reading test in the world. Watch for it. Prices 10c, 20c, 30c. Ladies free opening night.

SEDALIA THEATER.

One solid week of excellent attractions is in store for residents of Sedalia, beginning this, Sunday, afternoon, when Miss Grace Hayward, recognized as one of the greatest leading ladies in stock work today, and a high class company of artists will present an entirely new line of plays and vaudeville acts. Miss Hayward will present "The Missourians" as her opening bill in this city. The special vaudeville features make a complete entertainment from curtain to curtain, everything being changed at every performance. Special attention is given by Miss Hayward to the correct presentation of each piece. Saturday afternoon is children's afternoon with Miss Hayward, and at that time the company will give away several Teddy Bears to the children in the audience. All of the children can be allowed to attend this matinee, as they will see nothing nor hear anything that would not meet with the strict approval of their parents. They will be well looked after by the attaches of the theater and will see a good wholesome comedy.

MISS GRACE HAYWARD, At the Sedalia Theater All Next Week.

BAFFLE THE TAX GATHERERS.

Residents on Irish Islands Enjoy Immunity from Taxation.

The difficulty of collecting rates in a number of islands lying off the coast of Donegal, Ireland, was discussed at a recent meeting of the Donegal county council. It was stated that rates had not been paid in Tory Island for the last 20 years, and that within the past few years the islanders of Gole, Inisherer, Inishmair, Inishboffin, and others had followed the example of their Tory brethren and developed a conscientious objection to rate collectors. It was impossible to get boatmen to take out collectors to serve demand rates or make collections, and even summons servers who had summonses for the islanders, were refused a passage. On one occasion the collector engaged a boat and succeeded in reaching the first island before his mission was discovered. The boatman then refused to take him back to the mainland, and it was only after much promising and pleading that he was allowed to re-enter the boat. A councilman said that short of catching the islanders when they come to the mainland and stripping their clothes off them, he did not see how they were to be made to pay.

THE SCOTCH TEA-ROOMS

GIRL'S VIEW OF LUNCHING AND SHOPPING IN OLD WORLD METROPOLIS.

"BAWBEE BAPS" AND OTHER THINGS

On Which a Dragon Could Feast for a Dime—People Who Don't Know What "Hurry" Means, But They Are Not Americans.

It may not strike all travelers newly landed in Glasgow and athirst for information that its tea-rooms form the brightest, and its other shops the darkest, spots in that interesting city, but it did us. Why the tea-rooms should have so captured our imaginations I do not know, unless it was that we were touched by the spectacle of so much for so little. Is there any place but a Scotch tea-room where you can lunch to repletion on sixpence (12 cents), and where (added charm!) the feminine tooth can satisfy its taste for sweets without shame, since nearly everything in sight is sweet and what is not in sight is not to be had?

Cranston's, the tea-room par excellence of Glasgow, is not an inspiring spot in itself. The main shop on Buchanan street is a long, dark, narrow room where one comes solely to eat, not to indulge a roving eye. But who would fix his eye, from choice, on a table spread with every variety of bread known to Scotland—scones, soda scones, potato scones, sweet milk scones, currant scones, brown scones, all rather heavy and suggesting indigestion, but all good; bread and butter brown and white; bread and butter with carvies (caraway seeds covered with sugar), "bawbee baps," oat cakes, and endless other varieities of doughy confection. Then come cakes, that further distract the eye; and then, best of all, arranged in a neat square in the centre of the table, diminutive pots of jam, holding each enough for one person of good but not too greedy appetite.

Having taken a bird's-eye view of all these glories, one's difficulties begin. In the first place, it is a most distracting matter to decide whether to take strawberry, raspberry, black currant or damson jam, and, having decided, to chase the last elusive berry around and around the bottom of the jar before catching and depositing it on one's plate. Then unless you are of such an extravagant turn of mind that you disregard the price list propped up in a neat frame in the middle of the table there are most complicated calculations to be made.

"If a potato scone and butter cost a penny, and a sweet milk scone costs twopence, and a bun also costs a penny, shall I eat a sweet milk scone, which I like, or a potato scone and a bun, which I do not care for, but which will fill a larger chink in my internal economy?" It is a dreadful problem, but no more so than to decide whether to take a small cup of tea for twopence, on the chance of not wanting another; or to take the large cup for threepence in the beginning and in the end save a penny.

On the whole, the way to enjoy Cranston's to the utmost is to say "Hang the expense" and eat regardless. Then, when having consumed so many scones and cakes that the suggestion of "another bun" is a deadly insult, you begin a laborious calculation of what you have really eaten, you receive an unexpected thrill at discovering that you have devoured the enormous sum of eight pence halfpenny.

Glasgow's retail stores surprised our American minds much less pleasantly than did the tea rooms. Nine o'clock is supposed to be opening time; if it is more convenient to make it later, why, later it is. Scotch merchants must have angelic dispositions—or perhaps it is only a stray American who arrives on the dot—so that it really doesn't matter if the saleswoman is 15 or 20 minutes late. On the morning we were leaving for the Highlands I found to my horror that I had left my umbrella behind and must buy another at literally the last moment. I flew panting up Renfield street to a nice little shop I knew, to discover the shutters just being taken off. I made a breathless entry and demanded an umbrella of the shop boy, the only person in sight. He looked at me with a hurt expression.

"The shop ain't open yet, mum," he said.

"It is partly open, at least," I answered, "for you are here and so am I. Please show me the umbrellas, for I'm in a great hurry."

I don't think that boy knew the meaning of the word, or else he thought such unseemly haste should be discouraged.

"I don't sell umbrellas, mum," he said, "I only take off the covers."

"Who does sell them, then?" I asked in desperation. "I suppose there is some one in the shop who can."

"No'm, there ain't," he replied, severely. "The young woman as sells hasn't come yet."

I fancy that he did not like the expression dawning in my eye, for he retreated to the back of the shop, calling over his shoulder as a parting insult, "Come in later, mum."

Later, indeed! It was ten minutes past 9 then and the train for Oban left at 9:30.

I tried two or three other shops, with the same experience, and actually did return "later," humbled in spirit, to my first, where a deliberate woman deigned to sell me what I wanted.

The only places that seemed to open on time were the fruiterers, where we saw the most gorgeous grapes, quite beyond our modest purse, but worth going to Scotland to look at. Magnificent great bunches they were, a foot long and nearly a foot wide, with every grape perfect, arranged on stands like card houses, covered with white paper and with a background of their owns leaves to bring out the full beauty of the color—white, green, yellow and purple, of every shade, from the delicate pinkish purple to deepest blue-black. Our mouths watered as we looked at them, but we made haste to reflect that it would be a sin to eat anything so beautiful; and feeling like the philosophical fox of the fable, we filled our bags with an inferior variety and sorrowfully turned our steps toward the train which was to bear us away from this pleasant city. It is a pleasant city, despite the pall of smoke that hangs over it and turns its newest buildings to hoary, begrimed monuments of antiquity in a year's time. And though it shattered some of our preconceived notions of the superiority of the old world to the new—notions of the sort that in the desire to be fair and humble, many Americans have allowed to be thrust upon the by those "supposed to know"—we have only the kindest memories of Glasgow.

CASHED BAD MONEY ORDERS

Business Houses Victimized by Organized Gang.

St. Joseph, Mo., Feb. 8.—St. Joseph business men have been victimized by a gang of thives which stole a quantity of United States money order blanks in Chicago recently.

The thieves not only secured the blank orders, but the necessary stamps with which to execute them.

This they did in St. Joseph and then cashed them or exchanged them for merchandise. Jewelry stores were given special attention, but nearly all tsores in the retail district of some of the bad paper. A dozen government detectives are here working on the case.

ONCE RICH, NOW A WARD

Dr. James Cabanne, of St. Louis, Is in the City Hospital.

St. Louis, Feb. 8.—Dr. James Shepard Cabanne, founder of fashionable Cabanne place and formerly owner of most of the land therein, now valued at millions of dollars, has been taken to the observation ward of the City hospital, a penniless patient.

Since his arrival at the institution Thursday Dr. Cabanne has taken no nourishment. He talks incoherently and is confined to his cot, too weak to stand.

Dr. Cabanne is 69 years old, although he appears every day of the 90 years which he says he has lived. His money was lost in real estate speculations.

A SQUALID TRAGEDY IN RED

A LETTER FROM GOTHAM

COUPLE OF INTERNATIONAL WEDDINGS BOOKED FOR PRESENT WEEK.

OVER 500 OF SUCH MARRIAGES

And Up to Date There Have Been More Than 400 of These American Girls Who Have Sought Solace in Divorce Courts.

New York, Feb. 8.—Now that the honeymooning Szechenyis are no longer objects of popular interest, the New York public is beginning to sit up an take notice of the other heiresses who will soon join the great majority of American women who have married titles and lived to regret it in sackcloth and ashes. Two international weddings are scheduled for the coming week, one in this city and one in Paris.

Miss Theodora Shonts, daughter of the former Panama canal commissioner, will play the part of the happy bride next Saturday, unless Providence grants a further delay, when she will acquire a half-interest in the title of the Duc de Chaulnes. The consideration is not stated, but there is little doubt that the strap-hangers who patronize Papa Shonts' little traction system will have to pay the freight.

Another wedding set for next week, in which a title and a fortune are involved, will take place Tuesday in the American church in Paris. Miss Alice Ney Wetherbee, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wetherbee, is the "good thing" who will rehabilitate the broken fortunes of his highness the Court Rudolph, etc., Festetics de Tolna.

"Other parts of the world have monkeys, Europe has Frenchmen," said Schopenhauer. So far as the nobility is concerned, this caustic criticism apparently holds true today. A dozen horrible examples might be pointed out, but to what end? A woman in love, whether with a man or a title, is not to be deterred by precedent nor example. Let them R. I. P., until the rude awakening.

The dopesmith with the blue pencil, the huge paper pad and the worried countenance has been busy figuring out the risks involved in international marriages, with some startling but expected results. Over 500 American girls have married titled foreigners within the last half century, and fully 400 of these matches have ended in the divorce courts. Worse than this, over $200,000,000 in good American money has been taken across the seas during the period mentioned, and little of it has ever come back.

Some recent instances of unhappy endings of international alliances are fresh in the public memory. The shameful experiences of Anna Gould with the Count Boni de Casellane, the unhappy fate of Consuelo Vanderbilt, who paid $10,000,000 to become the duchess of Marlborough, and the divorce suit of Alice Thaw, sister of Harry Thaw, against the earl of Yarmouth—these and scores of other recent instances are warnings that may be seen by all women not blinded by the glare of a coronet.

Those who remember the disgraceful orgies with which thousands of New Yorkers—leaders in the society of this our Christian city—welcomed the arrival of 1908, may find food for reflection in a comparison of that festival with the New Year celebration held in Chinatown this week.

John, Chinaman, the heathen, burned a great deal of ill-smelling punk and incense, and had a great many feasts, and otherwise comported himself in a somewhat hilarious manner in greeting the good New Year 4605. But not in all Chinatown, alien though it persistently is to our modern civilization, was there to be witnessed a scene one-tenth so disgraceful as some enacted in New York's leading restaurants and hotels on the evening of December 31 and the early hours of January 1.

The good people of New York have many missions in Chinatown and are making plans to enlarge the scope of their efforts to bring John to a knowledge of his deep and abiding sinfulness. Would it not also be well for the celestials to build a joss house on upper Broadway?

Next week all fashionable New York will go to the dogs. There are critics—such carping fellows as Marse Henry Watterson, of Louisville—who will say that metropolitan society went to the bow-wows long ago and that the experience will not be a novel one. But this is another matter—the annual exhibition of the Westminister Kennel club in Madison Square Garden, which opens Tuesday. No canine without a pedigree at least a yard long will be admitted to the select society of dogdom on exhibition at the Garden. J. Pierpont Morgan, William G. Rockefeller, Samuel Uttermeyer and Gugegnheim, the smelter trust magnate, are among the men of wealth who will show the best animals of their kennels.

With Razor and Stiletto.

Dubois, Pa., Feb. 8.—Jose Brucceso, with a stiletto, and Frank Ferro, with a razor, locked themselves in a room yesterday and fought a duel. Ferro was killed and Brucceso was fatally wounded. The motive is not known.

ARE LIABLE TO $10 FINE

PUT INSUFFICIENT POSTAGE ON MAIL MATTER IF YOU DOUBT THIS.

ABOUT MATTER OF TOBACCO TAGS

The Parsons Sun Has a Little Story That May Prove of Interest to Readers of the Democrat Sentinel.

There have been certain powers placed in the hands of the postmaster general, says the Parsons Sun, that will in a manner stop, it is presumed, the habit, either through ignorance or intentionally, of dropping packages and mail pieces into the post office with short paid postage.

When a person sends a piece of mail he is supposed to know what the postage should be, and when he puts it in short paid the assumption on the part of the post office department is that he is trying to defraud the government.

Whenever that is discovered the government does not file charges against the party and have him arrested and enter into a long trial about the matter. The government peremptorially sends out for the party, be they man or woman, who mailed the package and orders them to report at the nearest post office and pay the postmaster a fine of $10, and if they refuse to do that they then are arrested.

People as a rule do not know this, but ignorance of the law does not excuse them.

There are a number of people gathering up tobacco tags and sending them out as fourth class mail, paying one cent an ounce, the same as merchandise, but the sender writes a few lines, telling the company whom the tags are sent by, what sort of a prize they want, etc. The very minute they do that the package becomes first class mail, to be carried for 2 cents an ounce.

It is plain to see that parties hereafter sending out these tags had best be on their guard and very carefully tell the clerk at the post office just what is inside the package, or allow him to open it for an examination.

Last Week of the White Wear Sale

Monday!

February Sale of

Real Linen Torchon Laces

REGULAR VALUES UP TO 12½c YARD—

5c yd.

Some 7,000 yards of the prettiest laces we've seen swing into our annual February sales. We've been thinking ahead to this sale for many months, since the sale last February proved such a mighty success, and we've been planning to make those big lace selling records made then seem small now. Importers have cooperated heartily. The Flower-Barnett business is getting bigger every year, and each one wants as much of it as he can get; seems like they are vieing with each other to see how big values they can give us. It will be a big spread of laces something like 7,000 yards that will greet you Monday. Fine, clean cut, absolutely pure linen torchon laces so much in demand for underwear, waists, children's dresses, lace curtains and various other purposes. In widths up to 3 and 4 inches. Matched sets, edges and insertions, in two and three widths of a kind.

DON'T WAIT! Remember, ever so many more will be thinking of torchon laces, and although the lot is big, the prettiest patterns have the habit of going first.

Regular 25c White Waistings Will Be

19c Yd.

Right when you want them, too, and they would sell as readily at 25c. If it were not that we bought them at an under-the-market price, they would have to be sold at 25c.

The daintiest designs you ever saw, all mercerized in the yarn, making the lustre permanent and able to withstand many trips to the laundry. Just the wanted weights for early spring. Monday, instead of 25c yard, the price will be..... 19c yd.

Women's 50c Embroidered Hose

MR. PATRICK FOR MAYOR

Well Known Citizen Announces His Candidacy.

This morning's Democrat-Sentinel contains the announcement of J. W. Patrick as a candidate for the democratic nomination for mayor.

Mr. Patrick has since first coming to Sedalia been recognized as one of the most aggressive and progressive citizens of the city, always willing and glad to do his part to advance the public welfare or assist in adding to the best interests of the entire community. He has been a resident of Pettis county for many years five of which have been spent in Sedalia. If nominated and elected he will bring to the office a mind well matured in public affairs and clear-headed common sense, as well as uncommon energy for the accomplishment of its duties. He promises that if he is elected he will devote his entire time and attention to the position and will do things, not satisfying himself simply by holding the place and drawing the salary.

The democratic party can make no mistake by giving his claims careful consideration before selecting the man to head the city ticket, as Mr. Patrick says if nominated he will certainly lead the party to a victory and after the election he will be a live, working chief executive.

SAYS ICE MEN ARE FAVORED

Prisoner Writes Judge That They Are Treated Like Guests.

Toledo, Feb. 8.—In a communication to Judge Kincaide, a prisoner in the county jail complains that the convicted ice men are being given special privileges, such as receiving visitors at all times, instead of on regular visiting days; that elaborate meals are sent in to them; that the ice men are permitted to go to and from the jailer's office at will and to use the telephone at will and that rugs and other articles are brought in to make the cells of the ice men comfortable. The prosecutor will investigate.

If a cough once gets into your system it acts on every muscle and fibre of the body and makes you ache all over. It especially affects the intestines and makes you constipated, so in order to get rid of a cold thoroughly and without delay you should not take anything that will tend to constipate. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system. It contains no opiates—it is pleasant to take and is highly recommended for children. Sold by Arlington Pharmacy.

TO KNOW

How the eyesight should be tested is one thing, to have the necessary expertness to do the right thing is something entirely different. Many men fitting eyes today for glasses, some of them supposedly competent, are not expert in their work because they lack practice. When you want a pair of glassses you should not go to one that makes a side line of the business and a pair of glasses occasionally, or lets you pick them out of a basket and lets you fit yourself. We have made a life study of this business and will fit you correctly.

Undermuslins

New undermuslins—all the exquisite muslin garments that we have collected to make this our most notable white wear sale are now on display. The refined taste of the daintiest woman is perfectly expressed in these rarely beautiful undermuslins, made from the softest cambrics, long cloths and nainsooks, with laces and embroideries as fine as you would select yourself at the counters. Many of the embroideries are comparable only to hand work; none are other than refined and perfectly suited to the garments they beautify. One of the rarest delights the exhibit affords is to see the perfection of the finished garments.

AFLOAT ON AN ICE FIELD

FISHERMAN LOST 24 HOURS ON STORMY WATERS OF LAKE MICHIGAN.

HIS EXPERIENCE WAS THRILLNG

Blown Out on Water in Blinding Snow Storm—Reaches Shore and Fights His Way Through Drifts to Safety.

Petoskey, Mich., Feb. 8.—Raymond Mailhot, a 19-year-old fisherman, of St. Ignace, Mich., reached here yesterday chilled and thoroughly exhausted, but not seriously the worse for having been lost on the ice on Lake Michigan for a day and a night, part of which time he was marooned on a floating ice field.

Wednesday's storm wrecked the young fisherman's shanty on the Strait of Mackinac, near his home, where he was fishing through a hole in the ice, and the blinding snow prevented him from finding his way home.

He made his way to land on the lower peninsula Thursday morning, and obtained food and rest at a farm house, and, spending Thursday night at a deserted cabin, fought his way through the snow drifts to Petoskey, reaching here Friday afternoon. His relatives had given him up for dead, until he sent a telegram from here to reassure them.

Two St. Ignace boys named Lant, who were thought to have perished on the ice, reached their home Friday. They had been caught in a snow drift over night.

A BIG SUM IS UNCLAIMED

MORE THAN $250,000 DUE CITY EMPLOYES REMAINS UNCALLED FOR.

MONEY IS IN NEW YORK TREASURY

The Largest Sum is $1,497.02, Which Is Due Robert E. De Lacy, Who Left the City Without Leaving His Address.

New York, Feb. 8.—There is more than $250,000 lying in the treasury of the city of New York which is due to former employes of the city, but which has never been called for.

The money was discovered by the commission which is attempting to devise a modern system of bookkeeping in the city. The city comptroller has asked the city council if there is not some way in which this money can be returned to the general fund.

The items extend over a period of twenty-five years and range in amount from 50 cents to $1.50. The largest amount is $1,497.02, which is due to Robert E. De Lacy, who departed from this city in 1886 and failed to leave an address.

He was an alderman at the time and there was charges of "boodling" against him. The other amounts are small and are due to men employed in positions varying from that of school teacher to that of snow shoveler.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

CUT IN THE PER DIEM RATES IS SUBMITTED FOR VOTE IN CHICAGO.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

The railroads today took steps to stop in a measure the tremendous loss caused by the present movement of empty cars on account of the falling off in traffic due to business depression, says a Chicago dispatch of the 7th. At a meeting of the American Railway association at the Auditorium hotel it was voted to submit by letter ballot to the 328 railroads belonging to the organization the proposition of temporarily reducing the per diem charge paid by roads for the use of foreign cars from 50 cents to 25 cents.

Since the slump in traffic it is said that millions of dollars have been spent by the railroads in efforts to get rid of all the foreign cars on their lines and escape the penalty of 50 cents a day. With a surplus of nearly 350,000 cars in the country all the roads have far more than enough of their own to meet business demands, and no road desires the speedy return of its equipment. It is stated that fully one-fifth of the entire freight car movement recently has been that of empty cars being hurried to the owning or home road. The railroads have come to the conclusion that it would be better to permit the cars to remain where they are until they are loaded.

The balloting will close February 25 and the reduction, if made, will become eective March 1. Some of the eastern and western lines are opposed to any reduction.

Katy Working Usual Ten Hours.

Starting today the brass workers at the Katy shops, who have been working nine hours a day, and have been laid off a part of the time, go back to their original time of ten hours a day for six days a week, says the Parsons Sun of Friday. This change was made necessary by the increased amount of work to be done and the rush to prepare rolling stock for spring hauling, and put all the company property in tip-top shape.

It is also understood that the other departments of the shop force, who have been working on part time, will be put back on a ten hour schedule within a short time. It is well known that freight conditions are better at the present time than they were a year ago, and though a few crews have been taken off at different times, they have generally been put back almost immediately, so that the men lost very little time.

Gave Him a Rocking Chair.

Mr. C. H. Tomer, the popular M., K. & T. switchman of 1313 East Fifth street, was surprised Thursday evening by a number of his friends and neighbors in honor of his birthday, and was presented with a handsome rocking chair.

The evening was spent with music and games, after which a dainty luncheon was served. Those present were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Wagner, E. E. Sanders, Masonhall, John Hayes, Wm. Evans, E. Hayes, C. A. Myers, John Hayes, Sr., Carl Johnson, Jagles, Bob Allcorn, Henry Eggart, H. Daily, H. Hodges, Hascens, Smith, Martin and Master Tony and Chas Wagner and Leroy Hodges.

Had to Be Carried Away.

Two Missouri Pacific employes at work in the local yards engaged in a controversy at the railroad crossing on Ohio avenue Saturday morning, when the younger of the two started to take advantage of his opponent's age.

An alert carriage line owner, who happened to be passing, noticed the incident and rushed to the elder belligerent's aid, with the result that the other man had to be carried away.

Move Back to Sedalia.

Alex P. Owens, who is now switching for the Milwaukee road in Kansas City, will remove his wife back to Sedalia from Jefferson City at an early date.

Mr. Owens says he has only himself and wife to look after now, and he feels confident something will turn up in the railway line that will permit of his making a living here if he cares to give up his Kansas City job.

A Verdict for $37,500.

The largest verdict for personal damages against a railroad company in Texas was rendered at Bolton Friday in the district court in the case of Dixon vs. the Santa Fe Railway company. The amount awarded was $37,500.

Dixon was injured while working on a switch engine, losing one leg, one arm and three fingers.

WIDENS SPLIT IN PARTY

CROOKED POLITICS CHARGED AMONG REPUBLICANS IN FLORIDA.

THERE WILL BE MUCH MORE OF IT

Double-Barreled Delegations Insure Big Fight for National Committee Control—What Will the Outcome Be!

Washington, Feb. 8.— Tempestous charges and counter charges of resort to crooked politics are made here by leading politicians of the warring factions within the republican party. The occasion is the news from the south that two delegations will go from Florida to Chicago, and that the same may be true in most of the southern states.

The Taft people are saying that the action of the Florida convention constitutes proof positive of the adoption of a disgraceful political program by the "reactionaries"—by them meaning the Taft opposition. Taft sources credit the Florida result to the predatory wealth conspiracy, which was denounced by the president in his message to congress.

The spokesmen of the other presidential candidates are saying that the Florida affair involves a shocking effort to mislead the public as to what actually occurred, and that the contesting delegation, in fact, represents a just protest against a scheme of the federal machine of officeholders to carry through a plot hatched and inspired by the head of the machine, who occupies the White House.

These "antis" give the lie direct to the statement of facts regarding the convention, which was sent out from St. Augustine and widely published yesterday. The press reports say that the Taft men controlled the regular convention, while the enemy bolted.

Before leaving for Chicago yesterday, Representative McKinley, manager of the Cannon boom, and treasurer in chief of the "reactionaries," said he received Friday morning from a "responsible and prominent republican" this telegram:

"Our people have controlled the regular state convention and elected four delegates at large."

Half an hour later Mr. McKinley gave out a second telegram from the same source, saying:

"Officeholders have bolted; held separate convention and instructed for Taft."

Such is the version of the action of the convention asserted to be truth at the Cannon, Fairbanks and Knox headquarters at the capital.

Contests have now resulted in the first district and the first state convention to meet, the district convention having been that of the Fourth Oklahoma. A long list of contests is certain.

The situation indicates a strong probability that the republican national committee, with its power over the temporary organization of the convention and over the personnel of the committee on credentials, will virtualy name the next republican nominee.

A friendly majority of the committee is claimed both by the Taft people and the opposition. It goes to show that the control of the national committee will be the strategic point of vantage to obtain which the battle will be hottest.

The Florida incident is regarded as bringing out eloquently the intensity and bitterness of [illegible] and the significant reality of the split in the republican party.

DEPOSITORS TO GET LITTLE

Western Bank and Trust Company Receiver Makes Report.

Dallas, Tex., Feb. 8.—L. C. McBride, receiver of the suspended Western Band and Trust company of Dallas has filed his report.

It shows clearly that the creditors for more than $1,000,000 liabilities will probably not realize to exceed 5 to 10 per cent of their claims.

Nearly 5,000 of the creditors are savings depositors, with an aggregate of nearly $400,000 of deposits.

TITLE FOR MOTHER, TOO

MRS. CORNELIUS VANDERBILT MAY SOON BE THE COUNTESS HADIK.

STORY COMES FROM NEW YORK CITY

Friends of Countess Szechenyi's Family Say Wedding Will Be Celebrated Soon in Hungary at Daughter's Home.

New York, Feb. 8.—By close personal friends of Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, mother of Countess Szechenyi, is is asserted that Mrs. Vanderbilt will in the near future become the Countess Hadik.

The wedding of the widow, according to report, will be celebrated in the home of her daughter in Hungaryy, and, like her daughter, the elder woman will make her home abroad.

Count Hadik was one of the noblemen who came to this country to attend the wedding of Count Szechenyi and Miss Vanderbilt. He is the nobleman who was much in company with Mrs. Vanderbilt and her daughter in Paris and Berlin, when the Count Szechenyi was with them.

It is said Count Szechenyi introduced the older man, who is not yet 45 years old [illegible]rs. Vanderbilt. He proved an agreeable companion, so much so, it is said, that the engagement of the count and the widow was decided upon before the announcement of the engagement of Miss Vanderbilt and the Count Szechenyi.

Mrs. Vanderbilt has been a widow for nine years, and, since the death of her husband, has seen her children married until it is pointed out she is practically alone in the world.

By the terms of the will of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt the widow received $2,000,000 in cash, together with a trust fund which gives her an income of $250,000 a year. She also received the Vanderbilt mansion at Fifty-seventh and Fifty-eighth street and Fifth avenue, worth several million dollars. This has greatly enhanced in value.

Should Mrs. Vanderbilt decide to sell her holdings here her fortune, it is believed, would not be far from ten million dollars, as she was possessed of a fortune of her own at the time of her husband's death. As in the case of her daughter, there is religious differences between Mrs. Vanderbilt and the count. He is, like others of his line, a Roman Catholic.

Mrs. Vanderbilt, before her marriage was Miss Alice Gwynne, and she was noted for her beauty. She is a sister of Mrs. William Edgar Shepard, of 16 East Sixty-ninth street.

THAW DOES REAL WORK

Helps Shovel Snow From Walks at Matteawan Asylum.

New York, Feb. 8.—Harry K. Thaw did real work yesterday, when, armed with a large shovel, he went at the heaps of snow on the walks about the Matteawan asylum and for two hours, with a score of other inmates, helped to clear the pathways.

Tiring of the piano and the books which have meant so much to him during his confinement, Thaw asked permission of Dr. Robert E. Lamb, the medical superintendent of Matteawan, to be allowed to do some work that would keep his mind away from his troubles.

"How would you like to try your hand at snow shoveling?" asked the physician.

"That would suit me all right," replied Thaw, and forthwith he was provided with a shovel and went to work with a vim.

NEGRO HANGED SECOND TIME

Rope Broke at First Attempt to Inflict Death Penalty.

Lake Charles, La., Feb. 8.—Bert West and Edward Williams, negroes, were hanged in [illegible] jail yesterday afternoon. West [illegible]s hanged first.

The rope br[illegible]e when the trap was sprung, but he was quickly strung up again, and soon strangled to death. Williams was hanged five minutes after West's body was cut down.

JUDGE HARGIS' BURIAL

REV. A. C. COOPER CONDUCTED BURIAL SERVICES ON SATURDAY.

WIDOW PLANS HER SON'S DEFENSE

Jailer Refuses Request That Patricide Be Handcuffed and Taken Home to View Remains of His Father.

Jackson, Ky., Feb. 8.—In the great front room of the Hargis home this morning lay the body of Judge James Hargis, in the magnificent mahogany coffin which he had chosen a fort night before his death.

In the Breathitt county jail is the son who killed his parent, now for the first time realizing the gravity of his deed, and over all the town is felt the masterful authority of the mother of the slayer and widow of the slain, who has assumed command of the situation, steeling herself against emotion and preparing for the burial of the dead, while at the same time planning for the defense of the living.

Mrs. Hargis has determined to stand by her son to the last, and the expression: "I will spend every cent I have and sell the house over my head to punish the man that kills my Jim," ascribed to her long ago, is being reversed in fact. She has not visited her son as yet.

The funeral was held at noon today, the services over the body of the dead feudist being conducted by the Rev. A. C. Cooper and the burial being in the Hargis family burial plot. From miles around friends and relatives of Judge Hargis came to attend the last rites over his body.

Friday Mrs. Hargis sent word to Jailer Little, asking that her son be handcuffed and sent over to see his father, but this request was denied on instructions from Judge Taulbee.

Beech Hargis said his father had endeavored to strangle him when he drew his pistol and fired. The statement does not correspond with any accounts of witnesses.

Thursday night, late, according to report, Beech Hargis took morphine in an endeavor to commit suicide. His mother, however, had sent W. H. Blanton to the jail to ask them to watch her son closely, and Dr. W. P. Hogg was summoned as soon as it was discovered that the prisoner was acting strangely. He had taken only a little of the poison and was soon resuscitated.

In the house of sorrow, besides the widow, are her mother, "Granny" Day, and her mother-in-law, "Granny" Hargis, each near the four score of years. The elder Mrs. Hargis has lost four sons by assassination or violence, one named Sewell and three named Hargis—Ben, "Tide" and Jim Hargis.

It developed yesterday that no one about here seems to know who is the coroner of Breathitt county. It is stated that he is a man named Turner, who lives miles from here, and residents of this place express surprise that a visitor should ask about him, saying that the facts of the killing are well enough known and need no inquest and none will be held.

Mrs. Marcum, widow of James B. Marcum, a victim of the Hargis-Cockrill feud, has nothing to say. Tom P. Cardwell, Sr., aged leader of the opposition to the Hargises, broke down when told of the killing and wept for the memory of the man he had opposed all his life.

JUROR SAYS LAWYER IS BORE

Appeals to Judge to Stop Tedious Examination.

Macon, Mo., Feb. 8.—During the cross examination of a witness in a state case here yesterday afternoon, Juror W. W. Aldoman arose and asked a question which created a sensation.

"What I want to know your honor," said the juror, "is, if we have to sit here and listen to the attorney examine the witness about something that has nothing in the world to do with this case. My time is worth something to me, and if the law can force me to sit here and be bored this way, I want to know it."

Judge Holman, who was trying the case, remarked that he didn't make the law, and that as long as he had to suffer that way every day the court was in session, the juror ought to live through one day of it.

The jury found against the attorney, who Aldoman said "bored the life out of him."

GOES TO JAPAN TO MARRY

Girl Answers Ad for Stenographer and Finds Romance.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 8.—From answering a want ad in a San Francisco paper, Miss Ethel Hutchens, a Denver girl, not only found a good position, but also a husband. Miss Hutchens is registered at the Oxford hotel preparatory to leaving for Yokohama, Japan, where she will meet Philip John Abbey and become his wife.

The young bride-to-be was much confused when seen and asked if she did not have a story to tell. She had registered at the hotel from Yokohama, not knowing that she would probably be looked up as being a foreigner.

Her story is a pretty little romance. In 1905 she was in San Francisco and seeing a want ad in a paper there asking for a stenographer to take a position in Japan she answered it and was given the place.

After arriving in the Orient she found life not to be as pleasant as she had expected and longed for companionship. She met an Englishman and a friendship soon sprang up between them.

Her health was bad and a doctor advised that she return to the states. As she was about to leave the young Englishman proposed and was accepted.

HIGGINSVILLE GOES DRY

Local Option Election Gives Prohibitionists 188 Majority.

Higgensville, Mo., February 8.—At the special local option election yesterday Higginsville went dry by a majority of 188. The total vote was 720. The election was hotly contested. Higginsville is the first town in Lafayette county to vote on the proposition.

Boone County Dry By 600.

Columbia, Mo., February 7.—Returns from the local option election in Boone county Wednesday show that the county went dry by more than 600 majority. Columbia went dry on the same day by forty-two votes.

Steelville, Mo., Without a Saloon.

Steelville, Mo., Feb. 8.—The license of the only saloon here expired Thursday night and for the first time in years Steelville is entirely dry. Owing to temperance agitation the saloon keeper did not apply for a renewal.

Ray County Votes Local Option.

Richmond, Mo., Feb. 8.—Ray county voted in favor of local option yesterday by a majority of 1975 out of a total vote of 2450. Every one of the twenty precincts outside of Richmond voted in favor of local option last Tuesday. Sixty-seven of the 114 counties in Missouri are now "dry."

Only Routine Business.

The Sedalia school board met in regular session Friday night, but only routine business was transacted.

MR. COWHERD SATISFIED

CANDIDATE IS RECEIVING AID FROM FRIENDS OF STONE AND FOLK.

THE CONTEST NOW IN A NEW LIGHT

Present Struggle Not Between the Old Alignment, as Some Seem to Think—What Candidate Said in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 8.—W. S. Cowherd, of Kansas City, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, arrived at the Southern hotel last night from Hannibal, Mo., where he spoke Thursday night at the annual banquet of the Commercial club of that place. Concerning his candidacy, Mr. Cowherd had this to say:

"I have received much encouragement within the last few weeks from all parts of Missouri, from all classes concerning my candidacy for governor. The present contest of democrats of Missouri is not between the old alignment, as some appear to claim, but it will be a new fight throughout.

"I have received the friendship of both Stone and Folk supporters, and I expect not only to carry Kansas City, but the greater part of Central Missouri already seems favorable to my candidacy."

Mr. Cowherd has petitions from fifty-five counties filed at Jefferson City, asking his nomination.

Mr. Cowherd was expected to arrive yesterday morning, and prominent politicans were waiting at the hotel to meet him. He did not reach the city, however, until 8 o'clock last night.

Mr. Cowherd will be in St. Louis the greater part of the day, he said, and expects to return to Kansas City this evening.

HE DEALT RED HOT BLOWS

THE DRUMMER EVANGELIST AT THE FIRST M. E. CHURCH FRIDAY NIGHT.

FIRST LAUGHTER AND THEN TEARS

A Word Picture of Some "Society" Girls That Many Recognized—The Revival Meetings Will Continue Until Feb. 17.

A very large congregation greeted Evangelist Williams and Singer Montgomery at the First M. E. church Friday night. This was the largest congregation since the meeting began. The crowd began to come at 6:30 p. m. and kept on until they had filled the main audience room packed the gallery and occupied a portion of the Sunday school room. If the people get seats today they will have to go early. One man went to the altar and professed conversion Friday night.

Mr. Williams gave the wandering boy a rest and took for his subject, "The Young Woman and Her Company." The young ladies were glad to hear the evangelist, for they were out in force.

Mr. Williams worked the oratorical pendulum betwixt laughter and tears and for nearly an hour carried the large congregation with him. At the close of the address the church went forward in good numbers.

Taking his text from I. Tim. 5:6, Rev. Williams said:

"She that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth. This is a startling declaration of God's word of the woman who spends her time in the social pleasures of the day. She is dead on her feet. Preaching special sermons to special classes on special subjects is no new arrangement. It is as old at least as the preaching of the great preacher to the Gentiles, Paul.

"Every woman should be a lover and follower of Jesus, for they are under obligation to the gospel for the privileges they enjoy. Where this gospel is not preached women are slaves to law and men. Others choose for her. But here she is free. Woman has the right to do what is becoming for any individual to do. Half of the human race have been slaves because of sex. Give her a chance and if man cannot stand his ground let him go to the wall.

"She was last at the cross and first at the grave of the Christ. She became the first preacher of the resurrected Christ. She led man out of Paradise. She should do her part to lead him back.

There are 15,000,000 women wage earners in the United States. She is a successful jockey, a deep sea diver, gold prospector, president of railroad, light house keeper, rancher, grave digger, and what your brother can do it is your privilege to do, my girl.

"Girls, you require the discipline of labor and the pleasures of work. God has only one standard—no male or female in God's standard. Men only have one standard. They demand of their wives and sweethearts just what God demands, touching a life of purity. Women have two standards, one for themselves, another for men. Very few young men will walk down street with a young lady with a cigarette in her mouth, or if she has a record of popping into the saloons of Sedalia, the boys will cut her out only for back street walks, and that after night. Girls, you will never do your duty to God and yourself until you demand of young men what they demand of you.

"Girls, you must select one of two characters. I am sure you will turn your back upon the useless, giggling, irresponsible nonentity which society calls woman, more troubled about her freckles than she is about her sins, spends more time before the glass getting ready for the next ball than she has in her whole life getting ready for the judgment. Generally the tragedy comes first in the play and the farce afterwards, but in this case the farce is first and the tragedy later. Is she your daughter? She is often on the streets with several girls like her. She calls her girl friends 'chums' or 'pards' and her young men friends 'fellers;' talks slang everywhere.

"You can hear her talking half a block away, laughing twice as far, stares at people who are not dressed according to her idea; she acknowledges no one her superior in anything. Old age is only deserving of her contempt.

"Her chief effort is spent in getting herself up in the latest style. Flirtation is her chief recreation and anything that wears pants will do to flirt with. She reads yellow back novels and pronounces them too lovely for anything. Her smart young fellows are too smart or killing for any use. She has a great deal to say, that if printed in a book would make her blush. She don't help her mother. All she wants is more fellows and to marry the one they are all after. She is determined to keep her hands soft and white, and that the world shall know that she is a cute little thing.

"She wears too many dead birds, rag flowers and uses too much cheap paint. It takes more than two coats of paint and a skyscraper covered with a whole barn yard of rooster tails to make a woman.

"Is she your daughter? Can you say you have done what you could? Three mothers were together; one said, 'Why won't you let your daughter attend the dancing school this year? How do you expect your girl to get on in this world?' The mother said, 'I am not training my girl for this life; I am training her for the next life.' The training that a girl gets that best fits her for heaven, that is what best fits her for this life. The training that unfits for heaven unfits for this life. If attending dancing school best fits you for heaven, why go ahead.

"Many girls make themselves stool pigeons for the cheap theater, the dance, the skating rink and Sunday baseball by being roped in with a free ticket.

"There are some girls who will look as sweet as an angel when their fellows appear at the parlor door, but will put on a devilish grin when poor, exhausted mother asks her to wash the dishes or dust the furniture. She has spells—straight all wool and a yard wide fits. Her love is made of paste like whitewash. It will rub off. The first drop of life's acid will dim the sparkle of her love. She will work a week working a monogram on some fellow's hat. I wish you could see her when her brother asks her to sew a button on his shirt.

"That notion that it is a disgrace for woman to enter into honest toil is about exploded; thank God for wash boards and dish pans if it keeps our girls from what is called society. The first cut from a log is always a slab. A society girl laced so tight, feet cold, nose red, looks like a frozen hen in cold weather.

"It is more important to improve the school days in a girl than a boy. The boy has a better chance afterwards. His contact with the world; society is so constructed that it gives the boy more privileges. We are heathens in our treatment of the girls. We strangle the girl babies, build no colleges for them, write few songs for them, preach no sermons, or give no lectures. The song writers did not think a girl had a mother; just came up like Topsy. The boy is the only thing in the mind of the men who give largely to schools, those who write songs, preach and lecture.

"Away back in the early days men wore wigs, powdered their hair and wore knee pants, but they have got more sense now, unless they are at Newport, Rhode Island, playing for a million or two. I would wear gunny sacks if I was trying to please some fool mother who had a daughter with a million or two on the side to dispose of if it would please her.

"I saw a girl looking into a glass. I wanted her thoughts. When I got them, here they are: She was trying to plan to put another layer of leather on the heel of her shoe. Then she looked into the glass again. Here is her second thought: She was trying to pull her waist down three inches from where God intended it to be. When she pulled herself into this kangaroo shape no sensible man wanted anything to do with her.

"Men do not want to marry two deformed feet. China is the market for that kind of goods. She would make any man's pocketbook look like the devil had danced the Huchie Kuchie on it."

The revival meeting will continue to February 17.

The following are the subjects to cover Evangelist Williams' stay:

Today, Sunday, February 9: At 10 a. m., in connection with the Sunday school, "The Two Ways," illustrated by two railroad time cards. At 11 a. m., "Doubting Thomas." At 3 p. m., boys and girls' rally. Everybody invited. Subject "The First Start, or the Devil's Bouquet." At 6:30 p. m., Mrs. Williams leads the Epworth League. At 7:20 p. m. "Breaking Home Ties." This talk was suggested to Mr. Williams by the noted picture by the same name, one of the three pictures that took the premium at the world's fair at Chicago.

Monday—"From Rags to Robes."

Tuesday—"Jacob's Ladder."

Wednesday—"The Knock of the Nail Pierced Hand."

Thursday—"The Young Man and His Opportunities."

Friday—"Conscience."

Saturday—"The First Romp With the Tiger."

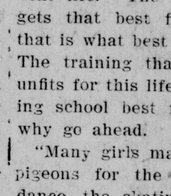

Sunday, Feb. 16.—At 10 a. m., "Bringing the Youngest to Jesus." At 11 a. m., "Putting on Christ." At 3 p. m., to men only; no boys under 14 years admitted; subject, "Thou Shalt Not, or the Power of a Clean Life." At 6:30 p. m., Epworth League, led by Mrs. Williams. At 7:30 p. m., farewell sermon.

Monday, 7:30 p. m.—"The Last Romp With the Tiger." Mr. Williams has now given this lecture 2,122 times.

Sunday Night, February 9, 7:30, "Breaking Home Ties." This is the Evangelist's Masterpiece. Taken From the Picture by the Same Name.

MEETING OF CLUB WOMEN

Massachusetts State Federation at Winchester.

Winchester, Mass., Feb. 8.—Club women of Massachusetts assembled here today for the annual meeting of the state federation.

The principal speaker was Prof. Charles Zueblin, of the University of Chicago, who discussed "The Arts and Crafts Movement in the United States."

At the afternoon session reports on the biennial of the general federation in June were submitted.

SERVED UNDER MARMADUKE

John B. Harper, Confederate Veteran, Dies at Dallas.

Dallas, Texas, Feb. 8.—John B. Harper died at his home in Dallas Thursday night. He was born in Boonville, Mo., April 24, 1838.

He served in Marmaduke's Confederate brigade. After the war he was a merchant at Boonville until 1873, when he moved to Dallas. His wife was Miss Eleanor Caldwell, of Calhoun, Mo., who died in Dallas fifteen years ago.

"Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee imitation ever yet produced. This, the finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. Not a grain of real Coffee in it, either. Health Coffee is made from pure toasted cereals, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—who might drink it for Coffee. No twenty or thirty minutes boiling. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. R. C. Dolph & Co.

LUMBERMEN OF TEXAS

Were Hosts to Brethren of Nebraska Saturday.

Houston, Texas, Feb. 8.—At a meeting here today the Texas Lumber Manufacturers' association completed its organization, with practically all the leading mill men of the state enrolled as members.

The promoters of the movement declare that the association is not in any way a trust and that no effort will be made to control the price of lumber.

A large party of Nebraska lumbermen, now on a tour of the south, were the guests of the lumber manufacturers today and will proceed from here to Galveston and Beaumont.

Stop that tickling cough! Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure will surely stop it, and with perfect safety. It is so thoroughly harmless that Dr Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else even with very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Demand Dr. Shoop's Take no other. W. E. Bard Drug Co.

GIVE $25,000 IN PRIZES

ANNUAL TOURNAMENT OF THE AMERICAN BOWLING CONGRESS.

WAS FORMALLY OPENED LAST NIGHT

To Continue Until February 22, and in the Meantime a Tournament for Women Will Be One of the Big Attractions.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 8.—With addresses of welcome by the mayor of Cincinnati and President Garry Herrman, and the rolling of the first balls by prominent citizens of this city, the annual tournament of the American Bowling congress was formally inaugurated tonight, to continue until February 22. Sixteen Cincinnati teams and two ladies' terms began the play in what promises to be the greatest bowling carnival ever held in the United States.

The scene of the tournament is the armory, where eighteen new alleys have been built, on which the most famous bowling experts of the nation will contest for championship honors and some $25,000 of the coin of the realm. The big building has been handsomely adorned for the occasion. Across the front is a mammoth sign reading, "Welcome, American Bowling Congress." Gay streamers cover the front of the edifice and extend across Freeman street. The interior is a riot of color, with thousands of colored lights to furnish illumination by night.

Nearly all the big cities and many small ones in the east, west, north and south are represented among the hosts of bowlers who have been pouring into Cincinnati in a steady stream all day. This afternoon the streets were thronged with enthusiastic bowlers, who are being entertained elaborately by local bowlers.

In the two weeks of the tournamen in Cincinnati eighteen newly constructed alleys will be used. In addition to the regular prizes as provided by the tournament rules, being the entrance fees, less 15 per cent, special prizes have been offered by President Herrmann as follows: First prize, $200, for five-men teams; second prize, $100, for five-men teams; first prize, $100 and $50 second prize for two-men teams, and $50 first prize in an individual contest.

The feature of the competitions will be the great international match, to be decided on the evenings of Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturay next, between the winners in 1907 of the five-men and two-men teams and individual championships of the American Bowling congress and the winners of the same events representing the National Bowling association, Western Bowling congress and the Canadian Bowling association. Besides paying the transportation both ways and berths en route for each of the contestants, the following prizes will be distributed: To five-men team winners, $400 in gold; to two-men team winners, $200 in gold, and to winners of individual championships, $100 in gold.

A tournament for women has been arranged. Forty dollars in gold will be given to the winning five-women team, $25 to the second team, $20 in gold to the winning two-women team, and $15 to the winner of the individual event. A loving cup will be given to the woman having the highest individual score, and a $25 hat to the maker of the second highest score.

President Herrmann declares himself in favor of special features, because the public wants diversion from straight bowling. He says:

"There are several special features that have been suggested and if possible, all of them will be staged. Of course, the big extra attraction at the tournament will be the bowling of various women's clubs for cash prizes, hats, etc. Next in importance—and some ungallant will say that it is really more important than the ladies' contests—is the big championship match between 1907 champions of the National Bowling association, the Canadian Bowling association, the Western Bowling association and the American Bowling congress.

"Then there will be the baseball players' events, limited to five-men teams, made up entirely of baseball players. While no prize has been fixed for this event as yet, it will be decided upon this week. Presumably there will also be prizes for two-men baseball teams and individual baseball players.

"Another special event that we are considering is an individual match of bowlers who have made 300. There are two bowlers in Fort Wayne who recently made perfect scores; Milwaukee and Indianapolis claimed one or two; Cincinnati has two and now comes Philadelphia with William Denney, a 300 man, who will enter, which will be entered in our tournament. It seems to me that a special prize ought to be offered to get these stars together in a match and if it can possibly be done this feature will be added to the tourney."

Pittsburg and Detroit probably will fight it out for the next convention. Locally, the sentiment is in favor of Pittsburg, but there is the objection that it is an Ohio valley city, and would make the fourth Ohio Valley city in four years. The delegation has announced that they will not paint Cincinnati red in entertaining the bowlers at this convention, but still will make a strong bid for the next tournament.

The various breweries around Cincinnati—and there are quite a number of them—will do their share in helping out the local association. Already arrangements have been made with the different breweries whereby each one will hold one of those unique yet satisfying entertainments in the shape of a beefsteak fry. There will be one of these entertainments each evening at the different breweries, and each and every bowler that attends will have at least one opportunity, and possibly more, of attending these functions. The bowlers of Cincinnati are adepts at running these little affairs, in which good fellowship is bound to crop out, and every out-of-town bowler who comes here will be amply entertained along these lines.

NEW THEATER BUILDING

DR. H. W. WOOD AND OTHERS MAY ERECT IT AT SPRINGFIELD, MISSOURI.

SAY THE CAPITAL IS ALL PLEDGED

In the Event the Baldwin Theater Cannot Be Leased, It Is Believed That the New Play House Will Be Constructed.

If the plans of Dr. H. W. Wood, owner and manager of Wood's opera house at Sedalia, Mo., and booking director of the new southwestern circuit of theaters, and other parties interested with him, do not miscarry, a new theater, equipped for the production of all high class attractions, will be built in Springfield this year, says the Springfield (Mo.) Republican of Friday. The proposed play house would cost not less than $100,000.

It is known that efforts are now being made by Dr. Wood and his associates to secure a five or ten year lease on the Baldwin theater in this city. What the result of their efforts will be is not known, but in the event they are not able to secure control of the local theater, it is the intention of the parties interested to purchase a suitable site close to the business center of Springfield and build a new theater.

Two years ago Dr. Wood became interested in the Shubert productions and during the time of the close competition between the Shuberts and the so-called theatrical trust, his theater at Sedalia was ufider the Shubert management. Since the Shuberts have gone out of business in the west the New Southwestern circuit has been organized.

The circuit comprises twenty of the principal cities of the middle west, nearly all the theaters being new. The attractions are booked in connection with Louisville, St. Louis, Chicago, Kansas City and Denver.

Theaters under the control of the Southwestern circuit are located at Sedalia, Joplin, Muskogee, Oklahoma City, Bartlesville, Independence, Kan., Coffeyville, Wichita, Dawson, N. M., Clinton, Jefferson City, Columbia, Princeton, Ky., Owensboro, Ky., Morganfield, Ky., Evansville, Ind., Logansport, Ind., Creston, Ia., Waterloo, Ia., and Des Moines, Ia.

Joplin is practically the center of the circuit. The theater in that city is the Shubert, and the opening performance was given Jan. 20 by Mme. Bertha Kalich in Harrison Grey Fiske's production, "Marta of the Lowlands." The theater was built at a cost of $85,000, and has a seating capacity of 1,600.

Dr. Wood is expected to be in Springfield soon to take up the new theater project. It is known that a lease on the Baldwin would be preferred by him and his associates, but to every city where they have gone and were unable to secure a lease on a first class theater, the building of an entirely new theater has been the result.

REV. KAYE IS OUT ON BOND

Minister Convicted of Counterfeiting to Preach Today.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 8.—The Rev. James R. Kaye, former Lincoln minister, who was convicted in the United States court here on a charge of counterfeiting, was released from the county jail yesterday. He immediately boarded a train for Chicago, and intends to assume charge of his flock at Wheaton Sunday.

A message was received in Springfield by the United States marshal from Judge Peter Grosscup, which stated that the bond had been properly signed, and ordered Kaye's release on the writ of supersedeas.

Following the verdict of the jury that heard his trial, Judge Humphrey sentenced the preacher to a term of two years in the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kas. Motion was made for a new trial by Attorney Lee, who represented Kaye, but this was denied.

The case was taken on writ of error to the United States court of appeals, and a writ of supercedeas was asked. This was granted a few days ago, and shortly after midnight Thursday night Attorney Lee made a hurried trip to Springfield with the bond of $2,500, which the minister signed.

Central Business College Items.

A number of students were placed in good positions the past week and a large number of new pupils entered school the first of the month.

We received a very pleasant visit from Miss Lola Smith, whose sister is now in attendance at Central Business college. Miss Lola received a position directly from school with Supt. Gage, of the Missouri Pacific, at $55 a month to begin with. Miss Lola is still working for the Missouri Pacific railroad company, Kansas City, Mo., and is now getting $80 a month.

Mr. Dan Miller, who has just left a good position in Montana, called at his alma mater on his way to Corpus Christi. Mr. Miller has held good positions from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the Lakes to the Gulf, and is still seeing more of the country. Mr. Miller has not only seen a good deal of the country, but has made a good deal of money.

A number of telegraph students have entered the past week. The Sedalia Telegraph school, located at 314 South Ohio street, on the second floor, is perhaps the best place in the United States in which to learn telegaphy. But few schools have a chief dispatcher as teacher. Mr. Dawson has made an enviable record in this shool and persons attending the telegraph school may rest assured that every minute of time during school hurs will be put in to the best advantage.

The railroad officials are doing all in their power to see that first-class telgraph operators are graduated from this institution, and nothing tha can be done by the aid of money, energy, first-class instruction and superbr advantages will be omitted in the management of this institution. The main line railroad wires run through the school room, where the instruments are clicking o the dispatcles that go over the road constanty, during school hours. The advanced pupils, as a consequence, receivethe same actual road experience that hey would receive in an office on the road.

The shorthand department, business tepartment and penmanship department of Central Business college were never stronger nor were the results ever more satisfactory than at the present time. The gymnasium and reading room is doing work for the pupils that nothing else can do.

If you desire to enter school talk with our representative and learn more of the advantages of this institution. You are more interested than anyone else in your success and it will cost you nothing to investigate.

WEDDING FEE FORGERY

PASTOR OF "LITTLE CHURCH AROUND THE CORNER" THE VICTIM.

HE REFUSES TO TALK OF THE CASE

Original Check Was $15, but Bride Suggested That It Be Made $25, Which Was Done, but the Paper Was "N. G."

New York, Feb. 6.— Many New Yorkers have been the victims of men who have given bogus checks, but for the first time a minister has been cheated out of his fee for performing a marriage ceremony by this method.

The minister is the Rev. George Clark Houghton, rector of the Church of the Transfiguration, commonly known as the Little Church Around the Corner.

Dr. Houghton was called upon the other day to perform a marriage ceremony. He did not know the couple who called on him, but that was not unusual, as his services are constantly in demand for this purpose.

After the ceremony, the man wrote Dr. Houghton a check for $15, but at the suggestion of his bride afterwards made the amount $25.

Soon after Dr. Houghtn presented the check at a bank, only to be told that it was bogus, and was the work of a man who had been swindling people right and left by means of similar checks.

Dr. Houghton refuses to give the name of the man who signed the check, but admits that the story is correct.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS.

Do Not Endanger Life When a Sedalia Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor; why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Sedalia testimonial:

Joseph Adams, blacksmith at 211 South Osage street, and living at 417 West Fifth street Sedalia, Mo., says: "I was troubled for years with a constant misery in my back and sharp pains along the channel running from the kidneys to the bladder. During the night I would have to get up four or five times to pass the secretions, especially in cold or damp weather. I went to the W. E. Bard Drug Co., procured Doan's Kidney Pills and used them according to directions. After using three boxes I did not have to arise at night so frequently, and by back was free from pain and was stronger than it had been for a long time. From my experience I can say that Doan's Kidney Pills can be relied upon to bring beneficial results in all cases of backache and kidney trouble."

GEORGE ADE IS AGED 42

INDIANA LITERARY GENIUS WHO HAS ASTOUNDED THE NATIVES.

STUDENT AT PURDUE UNIVERSITY

Once Quit Journalism at $6 Per Week to Engage in the Medicine Business in His Native "Hoosier" State.

Lafayette, Ind., Feb. 8.—Tomorrow will be the anniversary of an important event in Indiana literary circles no less than the birthday of George Ade, the towering genius who supplies the spice with which to leaven the literary output of the Hoosier state.

Although Ade has attained to international fame, it is unlikely that his merits are so highly appreciated anywhere as in his native state in general and in Lafayette in particular. It was at Purdue university in Lafayette that the humorist secured the foundation for his education, and his first newspaper work was performed here.

Of late years, since he began the publication of his slangy fables in a Chicago newspaper, Ade has been much in the limelight and his career as the author of successful books and comedies is known of all men. His early struggles are less familiar, and have been well described by his friend, John T. McCutcheon, in a hilarious biography contributed to a recent magazine. Of Ade's youth he says:

"Mr. Ade, or Georgie, as he was then called, was born on February 9, 1866, at Kentland, Ind., and is 40 years old, not counting the two years in the patent medicine business. Kentland is a little town of a thousand people. It lies in the heart of the corn belt, where the highest hill is hardly ten feet above datum in the Kent irrigation ditch.

"The first years of his life were spent in Kentland, with occasional trips to Morocco (Indiana) and Delphi (Indiana). In the daytime he demonstrated his unfitness for an agricultural career, and in the evening he sat with the local savants in front of Pat Keefe's grocery store helping settle affairs of state. Mr. Keefe, Jack Ryan, Will Kent, and Mr. Harnish, the genial photographer, were among the speakers at those evening debates. Occasionally Bluford Light, 'Blu' for short; Bill Hartsock and Ory Six would happen along to give new angles to the viewpoint of the subject under discussion.

"Thus Mr. Ade passed through boyhood and prepared for college. Pessimists around Kentland predicted that he would grow up and edit the local paper. He graduated from high school and was sent to Purdue university at Lafayette.

"He entered the freshman class in 1883. At that time he was a tall, slender boy with a face as refined as a girl's and as clear cut as the proverbial cameo that figures in the heart interest literature of the later Victorian period. His hair was very dark, but not black. Since then there have appeared streaks of gray, the large one on the right side coming from the 'Bad Samaritan' and the one on the left from Mr. Savage.

"After graduation, he went back to Kentland to corroborate his belief that he was not cut out for a future in the old home town. Literature—as typified by a job on a local newspaper, and law, as embodied in an opportunity to study with a prominent firm in Lafayette, were each beckoning to him.

"He selected the law. Why, has never been explained. He nodded over Blackstone for six weeks and then took a job as city editor on a newly established republican organ in Lafayette. The organ played its swan song after a brief existence, and he switched to an afternoon daily that held out a golden promise of six per week, rain or shine. Here he worked hard for some time, constantly confronted by the grim fact that the bare cost of living was overlapping his salary. If he had continued in that position, he would now be nearly $40,000 in debt.

"He quit journalism at six per and embarked in a patent medicine business, where he did the literary and press work of a remedy guaranteeing to cure the tobacco habit if you follow directions. The first direction was to cease the use of tobacco. His chief work was to edit testimonials and act as press agent for people who had been cured of the dread habit. It was a pleasant sight to see the youthful author, with his feet on a table, writing of the invaluable benefits conferred on humanity by the tobacco cure, for he smoked incessantly to stimulate his imagination.

Paid $8,000 for Waddell.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 8.—President Hedges, of the St. Louis Browns, is said to have paid $8,000 for the release of George Edward (Rube) Waddell, the great southpaw pitcher of the Philadelphia Athletics, announcement of the transfer having been made yesterday.

FORECAST FOR THE WEEK

ALDRICH FINANCIAL BILL IS BOOKED FOR DEBATE TOMORROW.

OHIO PRIMARIES BE ON TUESDAY

Senator Knox to Speak at Kalamazoo, Mich., on the Same Day—Lincoln's Birthday to Be Generally Observed.

New York, Feb. 8.—The attention of congress will likely be largely occupied next week with the various financial measures that have been suggested as remedies for the present condition of the money stringency. The Aldrich financial bill will probably be taken up for debate on Monday and kept steadily before the senate as unfinished business until it is disposed of. Senator Aldrich, who will engineer the measure, has made a careful survey of the situation as regards probable debate, and is of the opinion that no more than two weeks will be consumed in discussing the measure. Senators who have intimated that they will make remarks concerning the bill have been urged to prepare their speeches as soon as possible, in order that little time may be lost.

The republicans of Ohio will be given an opportunity to express by direct vote their choice for the party's candidate for the presidency at the primaries to be held on Tuesday, in all the preliminary skirmishes between the Taft and Foraker forces the former have been successful and there is little doubt that Secretary Taft will be the choice of the republicans of the state.

Delegates pledged to the candidacy of the secretary will be elected at a republican convention of the Sixth Tennessee congressional district, to be held Wednesday in Nashville. A candidate for congress and an elector will also be selected.

Colorado republicans will also likely declare themselves in favor of Secretary Taft at a meeting of the state central committee in Denver on Wednesday. The time and place for the republican state convention to nominate delegates to the national convention will be decided.

Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, who is nursing a lively presidential boom, will make his first speech out of his home state on Tuesday, when he will be the guest of honor at the annual dinner of the Lincoln club, of Kalamazoo, Mich. On the following night he will address the Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce at its Lincoln day banquet.

The National Democratic club will hold a dinner in New York on Lincoln's birthday. The speakers will be D. Cady Herrick, who ran for governor of New York in 1904; John B. Stanchfield, who ran for governor in 1900; Bird S. Coler, who ran in 1902, and Edward M. Shepard, who ran for mayor in 1901. None of the speakers will say anything against Bryan, it is reported.

Lincoln's birthday will be observed by various organizations all over the country, and several speakers of national prominence will address meetings and banquets to be held in New York and Washington on Wednesday night.

One of the most important events of the week abroad will be the celebration in London on Wednesday of the 80th birthday of George Meredith, England's leading man of letters.

The fifth general convention of the Religious Educational association will open Tuesday in Washington, lasting three days. Among the speakers will be President Roosevelt, several prominent congressmen and distinguished clergymen and religious workers from all parts of the country.

The National Association of Railroad Agents will open its twelfth annual convention in Los Angeles, Cal., next Saturday.

The secretary of the navy and Mrs. Metcalf will give a dinner in honor of President and Mrs. Roosevelt on Tuesday evening.

The trial trip of the new scout cruiser Chester will take place on Wednesday over the usual course off Rockland, Me.

Major General John F. Weston will take command of the Philippine division of the army, relieving Major General Leonard Wood at Manila on Saturday.

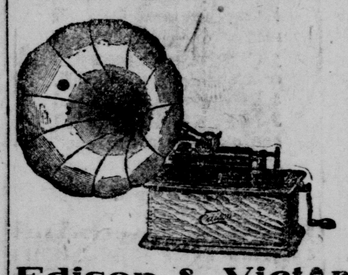

The armored cruiser North Carolina will undertake its third trial trip off the Chesapeake capes next Saturday.

Miss Alice Ney Wetherbee, of New York, and Count Rudolph Festetics de Tolna will be married in the American church, Paris, on Tuesday.

Miss Theodora Shonts and the Duc de Chaulnes, a French nobleman, will be married in Paris on Saturday next.

Count and Countess Laszio Szechenyi will sail for Europe Saturday next, according to present plans.

The New York-Paris automobile race is scheduled to start from New York next Saturday.

STERN CHASE ENDS HAPPILY

Father Forgives Eloping Daughter When He Finds Her Ill.

Sterling, Ill., Feb. 8.—For six months Blair Souser and his bride have been chased by John Stephens, the obstinate father of the bride, but now all is forgiven because the girl became ill on account of exposure, and a wedding reception has been held.

Six months ago the couple eloped and married. Both were arrested on warrants charging them with perjury, as both were under age when they secured the marriage license.

On promise that they would separate, the warrants were dismissed, but again they ran away. The father purchased an automobile and started in pursuit with a shotgun. He found them at Waterloo, Iowa, where his daughter was ill. It softened his heart and he forgave them and started them out in life with a farm.

TRULY ENJOYABLE EUCHRE

That Given by the Catholic Ladies Friday Night.

The Catholic ladies of the city gave a truly enjoyable euchre at the Eagles' hall Friday night, the proceeds to be used for the benefit of the poor of the city.

There were thirty-nine tables occupied by the players, together with a number of onlookers, while a number of tickets were sold to persons who were not present. There were six handsome prizes awarded, as follows:

Mrs. C. A. Goodyear, a cut glass pitcher; Mrs. C. E. Bailey, a hand painted plate; Miss Mayme Lennartz, a hand painted plate; Dr. W. H. G. White, a hand painted plate; Mrs. Chas. Parish, a lace handkerchief, and Miss Maude Chapel, a silver cold meat fork.

The committee in charge of the euchre desires to thank the following friends who donated prizes and helped by faithful work and the gift of free services to make the euchre a success: The Houston Transfer Co., the Eagles, Betz & Sons, Mrs. C. H. Raiffeisen, Mrs. M. Weisburgh and Mrs. R. A. Dunlap.

WHAT TO DO FOR RHEUMATISM

Don't take any chances with your rheumatism, and don't experiment, either, during the uncertain days of this season of the year when the means of relief are within everybody's reach.

Dr. George Edmund Flood assures us that one of the most certain and effective remedies for rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles consists of the following simple combination of remedies which may be obtained at any good drug store:

Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic ..... ½ ounce

Concentrated Barkola Compound ..... 1 ounce

Aromatic Elixir ..... 4 ounces

This prescription will strike the average reader as being very simple and we may add here that it is also very pleasant to take, but notwithstanding this fact, it will be hard to find anything that gives as good results in such short space of time.

Those who have tried it claim that only a few doses are necessary to relieve the pain, that it has a most delightful and beneficial effect on the eliminative organs, and acts as a powerful purifier of the blood. In this way it cures rheumatism, by going directly to the seat of the trouble, and relieving one, not only of his present pains, but of the danger of a relapse. Any druggist will fill this prescription for you, or better still, get the ingredients yourself and mix them at home by shaking them up in a bottle, and take one teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

SMARTEST OF THIEVES

HE FOND WOMAN'S POCKET IN A STREET CAR AND GOT $1,000 CASH.

HE AIO OBTAINED SOME JEWELRY

The Mystifying Part of the Case Was That the Inside Skirt Was Cut, While the Outer Garment Was Intact.

New York, Feb. 8.—As mystifying a feat at pocket picking as has ever been reported to the police was done on a Williamsburg bridge car, the thief succeeding in getting $1,000 in currency out of a woman's pocket without detection. From this the police deduce that he must be married, which is the only clew they have.

Mrs. Teresa Paretti, of No. 22 Arrow street, was the victim of the smart pick pocket. She accumulated $1,000 and a little more running a nut stand in Vicksburg, Miss., and came to New York with the money, which she had intended to put in a bank. She went to Brooklyn to visit Mrs. R. Ferguson, of No. 376 South Fourth street. Returning, she was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Jennie Rickett, and the latter's 2 year-old child.

As they got on a Christopher street car at the Brooklyn end of the Williamsburg bridge, Mrsi Paretti felt for her money. Apparently it was just where she had put it—in a pocket of an underskirt wrapped up, with two plain gold rings, in a silk handkerchief.

According to the story Mrs. Paretti told later at police headquarters, her daughter sat on her right and she held her gandchild on her lap, while on her left, the side where the money was, sat a heavy thickset man, apparently about 40 years old, and wearing a heavy black mustache. The car was crowded and the passengers had to sit close together.

At Sixth avenue Mrs. Paretti got off the car. She felt for the money. It was gone. She rushed to the nearest policeman and tried to tell the story. He understood enough of it to refer her to police headquarters, where a policeman of the Italian squad listened to her statement.

On examining Mrs. Paretti's skirt it was found that there was a long V-shaped slit in the underskirt, through which the money and rings had been taken. What made the affair mystifying, however, was the fact that there was no apparent opening or hole in the outer skirt.

GREAT SNOW ANNIVERSARY

This Was Back in 1857 and it Continued Three Days.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 8.—Old men who lived in Richmond before the war are recalling that today is the anniversary of the most terrible snow storm in the history of the Old Dominion.

The storm began on the night of February 8, 1857, and continued for nearly three days. It was given the name of Cox's snow, owing to the fact that Dr. Joseph Cox, of Chesterfield county, one of the most prominent physicians of the state at that time, was lost in the blizzard and found frozen to death, together with a companion.

The snow was very deep, even where it was level and had not drifted, and observant men, who remember this great snowstorm say that the rail fences, which bordered the roads and partitioned the fields, were hidden by the snow, and the lines of the thoroughfares were obliterated.

In many places the snow was drifted and driven by the wind, which was very fierce, until it covered up houses and barns.

MEMORIAL MEETING SUNDAY

Honor for the Late Rev. Fr. Stafford, of Washington.

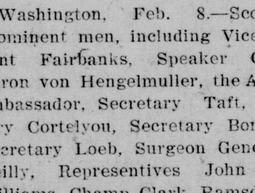

Washington, Feb. 8.—Scores of prominent men, including Vice President Fairbanks, Speaker Cannon, Baron von Hengelmuller, the Austrian ambassador, Secretary Taft, Secretary Cortelyou, Secretary Bonaparte, Secretary Loeb, Surgeon General O'Reilly, Representives John Sharp Williams, Champ Clark, Ramsdell and Goulden and Senators Aldrich, Beveridge, Carter, Elkins and Scott, will tomorrow give public expression to the esteem in which the late Father Stafford, rector of St. Patrick's church, was held at the national capital.

During his busy career in Washington, Father Stafford was the friend and confidant of some of the leading men of the nation, and the memorial meeting tomorrw has enlisted the attention of people of all creeds.

The program will consist of several short addresses by well-known men, eulogizing Father Stafford as a citizen and friend, as a priest, a patriot, a philanthropist, an orator, and a national character. These addresses will be interspersed with music, by St. Patrick's choir and probably a section of the Marine band.

GAINS CONFIDENCE OF THE WOMEN

Prof. J. Nelson, Who Uses Bathtub for Baptismal Font and Would Wed in Kansas Without Securing License.

Coffeyville, Kan., Feb. 8.—The Journal says: Alleging that he is guilty of performing a marriage ceremony without the proper license, and that he offered to marry a woman when he was himself married and at the same time had a divorce suit pending against him, the police are looking for a minister giving the name of Prof. J. Nelson, who had been preaching on the streets and other places in this city during the past week.

About a month ago this man, calling himself Prof. J. Nelson, came here from Kansas City. He gained the confidence of certain women in the city by giving a well known merchant here as a reference. Immediately after his arrival he began to preach on the street corners and at other times has held services in the court room at the city hall. During his stay he has won ten or a dozen women to his belief.

While in this city he met a woman about 45 years of age, residing in the south part of the city, and won her to his faith. On Saturday last he proposed marriage to her and his proposal was accepted. The woman, who is well known, told him they would have to go up to Independence and get a license before they could be married. Nelson thereupon responded that as he was a minister of the gospel a license was not necessary, and that he could perform a valid marriage ceremony without it. To put at rest all her misgivings, he promised to secure a marriage license at a later date. The woman agreed to these terms and they were pronounced man and wife by his own words.

Sunday the woman had some misgivings, and called Prof. J. Nelson to her home, and told him that the ceremony would have to be repeated. This time she was married in the presence of three or four witnesses, but still had no license. The actions of the man made her more suspicious, as he still put off getting the license. As a result the matter was put into the hands of the police for investigation.

Certain aprties residing in the city and well known in business circles allege that this man Nelson had been married twice in Kansas City and that his last wife is still living. He married his first wife some thirty years ago and lived with her until she died. About five years ago he is alleged to have been married again. By his first wife, it is said, he had seven children. Five were daughters, all of whom are now married, and the other two are boys still under age.

Persons who know him in Kansas City assert that his second wife is still living and at the present time is suing him for divorce. The case is said to be now pending in the circuit court of that city. With this case in court, it is said he knew he could not obtain a license here, and tried to avoid the necessary legal procedure and marry without a permit.

The police are looking for Nelson, and if found he will be given the alternative of leaving town or standing trial for fraud and attempted bigamy. It is thought, however, that Nelson has left the city, as he has learned that the police are looking for him.

The doctrines of the religion expounded by Prof. Nelson are half Zionist and much the same as the "freelove" sect in regard to marriage.

Mr. Nelson's last escapade while in this city is said to have occurred last week. Four new converts had been secured for his religion and the leader of the flock had no place to baptize them. As a final resort, the home of one of his followers was secured for these rites. On the appointed day the congregation convened in the bathroom of the accommodating one who had loaned the use of her house for the evening. With the proper service and with great solemnity the four women were submerged in the bath tub. This is said to have completed the solemn baptismal rites.

ONE DRINK MEANS DRUNK

Coffeyville Police Judge Defines Drunkenness in His Court.

Coffeyville, Kas., Feb. 8.—In the local police court yesterday, the question of drunkenness was raised. One of the prisoners said he had taken a drink of whisky, but denied the charge of being drunk. Judge Bruce Powell was thereupon called to define the term.

"Hereafter, in this court, the taking of one drink shall be prima facie evidence as to the guilt of the prisoner," stated Judge Powell in court. "There are no ordnances or statutes to define the offense, and so I take the authority to establish a precedent of my own. A man who takes one drink does so with the intention of getting drunk. In case of doubt, this shall be sufficient proof to conviet the guilty party."

AFTER THE CHURCH FAIR

IT IS PRONOUNCED ONE GUISE OF GAMBLING IN NEW YORK STATE.

ALSO POKER PLAYING IN HOMES

These, Together With Stock Exchange Transactions, Will Be Punished By Imprisonment if Three Bills Become Laws.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 8.—Assemblyman Yale introduced four bills yesterday which carry out the constitutional provision against gambling to the fullest possible extent, even to church fairs, poker playing in homes and stock exchange transactions, which, it would seem, would tend to prevetn the enforcement of the governor's race track recommendations without at the same time hitting any innocent amusements.

One bill makes gambling in a private club, residence or hotel, or buying chances in any form of church lottery punishable by imprisonment for not more than one year.

The bill provides an exclusive imprisonment penalty, instead of an alternative of imprisonmetn or fine for pool room gambling.

It absolutely prohibits betting at any game or participation in any contest in which the result is determined by chance, and makes the offense punishable by imprisonment for not more than one year, the same as pool selling and bookmaking.

Another bills repeals section 22 of the personal property law. This section, as it now stands, legalizes an agreement to sell stocks or bonds, although at the time of making such agreement the vendor does not own such stocks or bonds.

A third bill punishes by imprisonment for a period of not more than one year, all sorts of violations of the gambling laws, including the winning or losing of money at play or by betting.

A fourth bill defines a lottery so as to include any distribution of money where the determination of the recipient is by lot or chance, and makes the same punishable by imprisonment for a period of not more than one year.

GAY NIGHT'S TRAGIC ENDING

Girl Takes Morphine and Mother Tries to Shoot Sweetheart.

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 8.—As the result of a gay night spent in Boonville, Miss Bertha Atley lies at the point of death from swallowing morphine, her sweetheart, named Wheeler, is locked up under a charge of assault and Mrs. Atley, mother of the girl, is under arrest for trying to shoot Wheeler.

The suicide was attempted under dramatic circumstances. The girl and Wheeler, both staggering, came home from Boonville. Mrs. Atley reprimanded her daughter.

Wheeler, it is said, attempted to choke the mother and she secured a pistol and snapped it at him several times. The girl became excited and emptied a bottle of morphine. Physicians say the girl cannot recover. Mrs. Atley tried to commit suicide with the pistol on the way to the police station.

PLEASED WITH AFFINITY

William Grable's Marriage Costs the Government Witness in Case.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—When Miss Marion Grey the Elgin "affinity finder," is placed on trial before Judge Landis Monday one patron of the matrimonial agent will testify that her work was worthy of praise.

William Grable, of Dearborn, Mo., came to Chicago some months ago to tell the federal grand jury how he had paid Miss Grey a certain sum to find him a wife. Grable has found a wife and she is the woman to whom he was introduced through Miss Grey's agency.

Grable is unusually tall—the typical Missourian. When here before people stared at him.

Not liking the attitude of the "rubbernecks," as he called them, and following the advice of Deputy Marshal William Griffith, he made radical changes in his dress and carriage. Yesterday he was spick and span in a new outfit of haberdashery. No longer wearing a beard, he walked erect and dignified beside his bride.

RHEUMATISM

BODY RACKED WITH PAIN

No other disease causes such wide-spread suffering as Rheumatism. It is a nerve racking torture, and so thoroughly does it dominate the system, when it becomes entrenched in the blood, that its victims are usually complete slaves to pain. Rheumatism is due to an excess of uric acid in the blood brought on by stomach troubles, weak kidneys, indigestion, and a sluggish condition of the system. The natural refuse of the body, instead of passing off through the ordinary channels of waste, is left to sour and ferment in the system because of these irregularities, forming uric acid which is absorbed into the blood, and Rheumatism gets a foothold. As the blood circulates through the body it deposits the acrid, irritating substances with which it is saturated, into the different muscles, nerves, tissues and bones. Sharp, biting pains commence, the flesh becomes feverish, swollen and tender, the muscles and joints throb and jerk, and the body is literally racked with pain. Plasters, blisters, liniments, etc., can never cure the disease; they relieve the pain, perhaps, temporarily, but do not reach the trouble, which is in the blood. S. S. S. is the proper treatment for Rheumatism. It goes down and attacks the disease at its head, and by driving out the poison and acrid fluids which are causing the pain, and strengthening and enriching the blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, just what is needed in every case of Rheumatism. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free.

GAMBLING AT ST. JOSEPH

CHIEF OF POLICE ISSUES AN ORDER TO MAKE RAID ON ALL PLACES.

POKER GAME 'LOOKOUT' ARRESTED

The Claim Is Made That Gambling Is Carried on in the Rear of Cigar Stores and It Must Be Suppressed.

St. Joseph, Mo., Feb. 8.—Acting under instructions from Chief of Police Frans and Inspector of Detectives Kelley, war has been inaugurated by the police on gambling, which, it is reported, is flourishing in the city after a lapse of several months.

Charles Wallace, the first victim of the crusade, was arrested last night by Detectives Moore and Johnson in front of a cigar store on Fifth street.

He was charged with vagrancy and in police court this morning his case was continued until Monday.

Wallace, it is said by the detectives, has been acting as "lookout" for a poker game in a cigar store.

The police claim that poker games are run nightly in many of the cigar stores in the business district. The officers also say there is a gambling house just outside of the city limits, which has been running openly for some time.

Detectives traced a wagon load of gambling paraphernalia to the house, and, after satisfying themselves that games of chance were conducted in the place, reported to the county authorities.

IT WAS A HARD FIGHT

A Knockdown and Dragout at Sixth and Ohio Streets.

Wilbur Remington and Walter Snell, two well known young men of this city, who have been at "outs" for a long time, engaged in a knockdown and dragout fight at Sixth and Ohio avenue, late Friday night, with the result that one of the men was carried to his apartments in a half dying condition.

Snell, who was the aggressor, is alleged to have used a black jack on his opponent, felling him to the ground. Instantly Remington was on his feet again, and in his usual style he administered a beating to his rival in such a thorough style that the latter had to be carried away with his head bleeding profusely. There were no arrests.

BURIAL OF MISS CHAPPELEAR

Funeral on Saturday Morning Was Quite Largely Attended.

The funeral of Miss Allie Chappelear, who died Thursday, was held from the home of deceased's sister, Mrs. J. L. Hall, 423 West Broadway, at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Rev. J. M. Rudy, pastor of the First Christian church, officiating, and burial was made in the city cemetery.

"Lead Kindly Light" and "Abide With Me" were sung by Mrs. E. B. Quisenberry, Miss Polly Battersby and Miss Mae Goodwin, after which Mrs. Quisenberry sang deceased's favorite selection, "Face to Face." Miss Jessie Smith presided at the piano.

The services were largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends, and many beautiful floral offerings rested on the casket.

SPEEDING TRAIN KILLS TWO

Runaway Team Meets Engine on Benton Station Crossing.

Montgomery, Mo., Feb. 8.—Edward Carter and Joseph Byers, farmers, were killed by Wabash train No. 22, east bound, at noon yesterday, near the crossing at Benton Station, nineteen miles west of this city.

They started to drive across the track, but the team became frightened and ran in front of the engine.

A weak stomach means weak stomach nerves, always. And this is also true of the Heart and Kidneys. It's a pity that sick ones continue to drug the stomach or stimulate the Heart and Kidneys. The weak nerves, not the organs themselves, need this help. This explains why Dr. Shoop's Restorative has, and is promptly helping so many sick ones. It goes direct to the cause of these diseases. Test this vital truth, and see. W. E. Bard Drug Co.
